

In flight

River Place

The restaurants of River Place Inn, Detroit's next small luxury hotel, feature fresh cheese, meat and produce flown in from all parts of Michigan. Executive Chef Victor Gentile says he may buy products from the Eastern Market or have products flown in from the Upper Peninsula if they aren't available locally. Among his specialties are whitefish soup, and veal sweetbreads sauteed with oyster mushrooms, pine nuts and artichoke hearts. Menus in the River Room and the Tavern are revised daily.

Hall, along with casual touring of the main floor. Candlelight dinner with wines is at 8 p.m. Reservations are $70 per person. For more information call 3703-3140.

Love feast

The Salute to Aphrodite, a love feast, continues every Tuesday night at the Rhinoceros restaurant in Detroit's Rivertown. The "aphrodisiac menu" was researched and prepared by Chef Mark Schwartz. An art show, and music by Paul Vornhagen on saxophone are part of the evening.

Stately Dinner

Next monthly Stately Dinner at Meadow Brook Hall will be presented Friday, March 16, on the Oakland University campus in Rochester Hills. Chef Steven Machlay (who recently was chosen to attend the School for American Chefs at Beringer Vineyards in California's Napa Valley) is preparing a meal that includes hors d'oeuvres, gazpacho, black sea bass poached in red wine, mango sorbet, sliced leg of lamb stuffed with pesto and prosciutto accompanied by roasted field potatoes and brussels sprouts, sliced capon salad with radicchio and Belgian endive, and baked apple flan. A reception at 7:30 p.m. begins with hors d'oeuvres and aperitifs in the Great

Chef Raphael

Chez Raphael and Chef Edward Janos were among those highlighted in a recent issue of Gastronomy magazine as exemplifying the best of the restaurants and chefs in the Midwest. Achille Bianchi's wine list recently received a Distinguished Achievement Award of Excellence from the Wine Spectator. The Connerie de la Chaine des Hoteleurs, international gourmet society, recently invited Bianchi to membership. Chez Raphael will host a special dinner in mid-March for the Michigan Chapter of the chaine, for which 12 of Michigan's top chefs will participate in preparing the dinner.
