

Community cable TV offers variety, access

It all began at a Novi Chamber Luncheon. Steve Meyers and I sat next to one another and began talking about the virtues of community television.

Steve, being the PR man that he is, took the ball and ran with it. Today he is producing two television series, "Junior Japanese" with son, Ken, who is the instructor. This program is being interviewed by CNN this week.

We are proud of the citizenry of Novi who have pitched in to enjoy this production, including our staffs of SWOCC and Metrovision and Businesses of Lee Mamola Architects and World Book/Childcraft.

The other television series produced by Steve Meyers is "Vladislav Kovalsky: His Music and His Friends." Once again local residents are flocking to enjoy participating. Well-known producer in her own right, Virginia Dickerman is co-host in the series. One of the most exciting characteristics is that it is sponsored at "Victor's of Novi." You can be part of the live audience and dine at the same time.

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

Monday, March 5

- 10 a.m. — Novi Talking History: Mable Ash
- 11 a.m. — Crisis in the Modern

Workshop scheduled

The Farmington/Farmington Hills Chamber of Commerce will host a breakfast workshop on recycling for businesses 8 p.m. Wednesday, March 14, at the Radisson Suite Hotel, 37529 Grand River.

Business must consider the impact of solid waste on profit margins, according to the workshop flier.

For reservations, call the chamber: 474-3440. Cost if $10 per person for members, $12 per person for non-members.

How to drop 250 pounds in 3 seconds.

That's right—anybody can drop 250 pounds, whether you weigh in at 98 or 298. As you'll learn at American Karate Training Centers, all it takes is a few quick kicks and hand strikes, and lots of practice.

And once you're on a steady diet of American Karate, something else happens... you'll get yourself into great shape as well.

Self-defense and fitness... now that's definitely tipping the scales in your favor!

BECAUSE AMERICA NEEDS A STRONG DEFENSE.
