PTA plans symposium on parenting

The Farmington PTA Council reaches out to parents this spring with a daylong program designed to offer tips on parenting.

The parent symposium, "We make the Difference," will be held from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, March 31, at Warner Middle School, on 14 Mile between Orchard Lake and Middlebelt roads.

Keynote speaker Louise Reid Ritchie, a psychologist and newspaper columnist, will address how, by being sensitive to their own needs, parents can help children be sensitive to their needs and others.

will talk about being a parent with three elementary-age children, and share first-hand experiences with other parents.

"PTA - Myth or Challenge?" - a historical perspective of the PTA and the partnership that should exist between schools and parents. Herbert Moyer, Michigan PTA Education Commission chairman and superintendent of Bedford Public Schools, will be the presenter.

Session Two:

"Parenting for Achievement and Self-Esteem" - Gerald Kaplan, gifted coordinator in Farmington schools, will discuss children who are at high risk for underachievement and how that can be predicted in preschoolers.

"Human Sexuality, a shared concern" - Sherry Samson of the Michigan Metro Girl Scouts will focus on development of self-esteem and the prevention of teen pregnancy. The aim is to help ensure that young people can make responsible, informed decisions about their sexuality.

"Children: The Challenge" - this workshop with Suzanne Dream of the Farmington Area Advisory Council will discuss parenting the challenge of encouraging children, specifically adolescents, guiding them in a healthy direction, with love and humor.

"Process of Parenting" - this workshop will give effective steps in parenting with practical suggestions. Brian Winters, principal at Roosevelt School in Port Huron, will be the presenter.

Parents can select a first and second choice for each session of workshops. Early registration of $16 must be received by March 16, or on-site registrations will be taken the day of the seminar as space permits.

Send fee and choices to Roxanne Fitzpatrick, 26300 Holly Hill Drive, Farmington Hills, 48018. Make checks payable to the Farmington PTA Council. The price of lunch is included in the registration fee.

WORKSHOPS FOR Session One
