Nature Center Has Display Of Literature

A special exhibit concerning "Environmental Literature" will be on display at the Nature Center of Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford from Saturday, Feb. 6 through Sunday, Feb. 14.

The exhibit will contain books and periodicals that are devoted to the identification and understanding of Michigan plants, animals, rocks and minerals as well as books covering phases of the current "environmental crisis."

The Nature Center hours are from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday and from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. Mornings are reserved for school appointments.

To contact the Center, call 685-2417 (Milford).

RUMPELSTILTSKIN -- On the right is the famed fairy tale character, Rumpelstiltskin, laying claim to the Princess' baby. The marionette show will be presented in Clarenceville High School, Sunday, Feb. 7, at 1 and 3 p.m.

Puppet Show

The Philip Molby Marionettes of Detroit will present the fairy tale, "Rumpelstiltskin," on Sunday, Feb. 7, in the Louis E. Schmidt Auditorium, Clarenceville High School. Performances, under sponsorship of the Clarenceville Entertainment Series, will be given at 1 and 3 p.m. Tickets are 50 cents each.

"Rumpelstiltskin," by the Brothers Grimm, is the story of a strange little gnome who lives in a tree deep in the forest.

Featured "on stage" are one-third life-size marionettes, authentic costumes from the period of Henry VIII and music from the same period.

The box office in the Schmidt Auditorium will be open for advance ticket sales on Thursday and Friday, Feb. 4 and 5, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tickets may also be obtained from Mrs. Ralph Gaffie at 476-0318 or Mrs. James Garrison at 476-1060.

Area Artists In Exhibit

Many Observerland artists will exhibit their works at the eighth annual Sholem Aleichem Institute art show Feb. 5, 6 and 7 in the old Institute building, 19350 Greenfield, north of Seven Mile.

Area artists who are participating are Jessie Hudson of Plymouth; John Chaffee, Chuck and Harriet Gelfond, John and Ruby Glick of Farmington; Dorothy Boyack-Riggs and Electra Stamelos, Berta Golahmy and Sadie Small of Livonia; Janet W. Heintz and Walter K. Heintz, of Westland; and Marion and Alexandra Beauregard-Beno, Barbara Chover, Sylvia Chover, Ann Dann and Ben Glicker of Southfield.

BOB TALBERT, Detroit newspaper columnist, will be the celebrity on Saturday night, which is the traditional "celebrity night" at the show.

It will be Talbert's pleasant task to select the three door prize winners who will receive paintings contributed by three participating artists.

They are: Cornelia Covert, whose works hang in the Grand Rapids Museum and Wayne State University Gallery; Sophie Fordon, of Oak Park, whose works are a part of the private collection of Moshe Dayan and Sammy Davis Jr.; and Fay Freedman, who was the 1964 winner of the best print submitted to the Wilmington Museum of Fine Art and whose works are part of the Gruber Gallery, Philadelphia.

The show features all art forms and emphasizes a reasonable price range.

On Friday night, visitors will have an opportunity to meet many of the 212 artists who are taking part in the exhibition. Refreshments will be served without charge throughout the show. Admission is $1.

On Friday, the show will be open from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday hours will be from noon to 10 p.m. and on Sunday from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Snowmobiling Area Opens

For the first time, the Huron Valley Night Hawks Motorcycle Club has opened its 38-acre "Place in the Hills" for winter fun.

Located near the Irish Hills at 14738 Sharon Hollow Rd., off US 12, five miles west of Clinton, Mich., "Place in the Hills" will be open for snowmobiling each Saturday and Sunday from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. during the snow season.
