

recreation news

Each week, the Farmington Hills Department of Special Services Recreation Division presents a synopsis of upcoming activities. For more information about programs, call the recreation office, 473-8570. For matters regarding city council agenda items, call Newsline at 476-3838.

Swim lessons

Swimming instructions for beginner through advanced is offered at Harrison High School beginning Saturday, April 28. A $20 fee is required for the six-lesson program. Participants must be 38 inches tall at their chin height.

astronomy

What can we see with the unaided eye or with binoculars in the night sky this season? At least four different constellations, as well as time proven techniques for star gazing, viewing meteor showers, eclipses and observing the moon. The class will be 7-9:30 p.m. Friday, April 6, at the Farmington Hills City Hall, 31555 11 Mile. Fee is $3 per person or $10 per family. Pre-registration is required.

nature study

Is it for the birds? From 10 a.m. to noon, Saturday, April 28, you will learn what serious challenges face our feathered friends that remain in our state during the winter. The class will be at the Spicer House in Heritage Park. Pre-registration is required.

white water adventure

Meet the challenge of rafting the Cheat River in West Virginia. The Cheat is one of the largest uncontrolled watersheds in the Eastern United States. The river boasts class 2 and 3 rapids. The 1100-person fee is based on two night's accommodations, single or double, motor coach transportation, lunch on Saturday and rafting fees. The trip will be May 18, 19 and 20. Registration deadline is April 13.

golf lessons

Get back into the swing of things with some sound basic tips of golf. Six lessons will cover proper stance, grip and swing. Classes begin the week of April 30 at Novi Oaks Golf and Sport Center and meet twice a week, Monday, Wednesday or Tuesday and Thursday. Each class is 50 minutes. Scheduled lessons are for children, teens, adults and senior adults.

san marino golf course

Too it up again as the San Marino Golf Course is open and waiting to challenge your golfing skills. The course is open from dawn to dusk, weather permitting. After your round, stay in the expanded clubhouse to relax and meet the friendly staff who is waiting to serve you. The course is on Halsted Road between 12 Mile and Grand River. Reservations for the week will be accepted beginning Monday mornings by calling 476-5910.

teen center

The Farmington Youth Assistance and Farmington Hills Recreation Division are co-sponsoring a Teen Center at East Middle School Friday evenings from 7-10 p.m. for students of the Farmington area who are 12 to 16 years old. Activities include open gym, card games, pingpong and socializing with friends. One day special events are also planned. Membership is $2, and the teen will receive an I.D. card.

"Kiss Me Kate"

Clarencville High students take on Shakespeare for the first time this weekend in their production of "Kiss Me Kate," the story of the problems actors experience on the opening night of "The Taming of the Shrew." In one of the scenes, Petruchio (played by Matthew Duncan) spansks Kate (played by Krysti Kramer) as he tries to convince her that she will marry him. For ticket information, call 473-8926.
