

Totems

The painting called "Totems" won the third-place award for Lena Massara in Farmington Artists Club's Spring Exhibit. Massara, who was named Artist-in-Residence for 1990, will be one of the club members at the reception for the artists, which begins at 7 p.m. Friday, May 11, in Nardin Park Methodist Church, 29887 11 Mile. The spring show runs May 9-12 in the church.

ED CONLEY

Exchange student to live in Denmark

Jason Heien of Farmington has been accepted by Youth For Understanding International Exchange as an international exchange student. Jason will live with a family in Denmark on YFU's 1990 fall semester program. Jason currently attends Farmington High School.

Youth For Understanding International Exchange was established in 1951 as a private, non-profit educational organization dedicated to promoting international understanding and world peace through exchange programs for high school students.

Today, 38 years later, YFU operates exchange programs in more than two dozen countries and has regional offices in the United States, an International Center in Washington, D.C., and more than 130,000 alumni. For more information about YFU's American Overseas program, call 1-800-TEENAGE.

Mother's Day brunch set

The Community Center — Farmington, Farmington Hills is planning a Mother's Day Brunch Sunday, May 13. Brunch will be served continually 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the center, 24705 Farmington Road.

The menu will feature both breakfast and lunch selections including quiche, home-baked muffins, fresh fruit and ham. Background music will be provided by Cecelia Webster on the Celtic harp. She is a performer on staff at Greenfield Village.

Breast health programs offered at Botsford

Women can learn the facts about breast disease at one of Botsford General Hospital's free Breast Health Awareness Programs May 8-10.

Participants have a choice of three, one-hour educational sessions to attend: 10 a.m. May 8; 7 p.m. May 9; or 2 p.m. May 10.

Participants will learn about the risk factors affecting breast disease as well as diagnostic techniques, new research and treatment updates. Following the educational sessions, women can talk with health care professionals about the breast self-examination, nutrition and more.

Women who are 35 or older, have never had a mammogram and attend one of the educational sessions will receive a voucher for a free mammography screening at Botsford General Hospital.

Advanced registration is required. To register or for more information, call Community Relations at Botsford General Hospital at 471-8069.
