Chorale marks 75th birthday

The Madrigal Chorale will celebrate its 75th anniversary with a concert and afterglow at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at North Congregational Church, 26275 Northwestern, Southfield.

Highlights of the concert conducted by Robert A. Martin will include a performance of Mozart's Requiem, music by Brahms, Beethoven, John Butter and contemporary composers and traditional spirituals.

Former Madrigal Chorale directors Carolyn Eynon and Chuck Gleason will return to the podium. Former Chorale members have been invited to join in part of the performance.

The Chorale, a non-profit organization, consists of about 50 singers who perform on a volunteer basis. Each year the group gives a vocal music scholarship to a high school student.

Tickets, $10, are available at the Mary Thompson Cultural Center, 25630 Evergreen, Southfield, or by calling the Civic Center, 354-4717.

Homeowners will save 100 million dollars in Real Estate commissions in 1990

Southfield—The homeselling season is underway and there is exciting news for Michigan's homeowners. This year, Michigan homeowners are targeted for savings of 100 million dollars in real estate commissions to enable homeowners to realize a good-sized profit from the sale of their homes.

Throughout the country, home prices are coming down and fortunately so are real estate commissions. Now, homeowners with homes valued from $70,000 up to $2,000,000 are calling Michigan's popular No-Commission, flat-fee, full-service Realtor-Realpros and saving an average of $11,000 in real estate commissions. Jonathan and Abby Roland, who sold their gorgeous Bloomfield Hills home through HMS saved $16,000 in real estate commission and are now living happily in Colorado. With thousands of happy clients, HMS has made a real commitment to save 100 Million dollars in real estate commissions for Michigan homeowners in 1990. HMS has offices throughout the Tri-County area and its team of real estate brokers, agents, attorneys, mortgage, and title specialists often work around the clock. HMS sells homes in every city, town, and county in Michigan. The best way to know more about HMS is to call an HMS office and ask them to mail you one of their informative brochures. The numbers to call are: 353-7170 in Southfield for South Oakland County Area; 656-3030 in Rochester Hills for North Oakland County Area; 592-0929 in Redford for Wayne County area; and 228-2090 in Mt. Clemens for Macomb County area. HMS also sells homes in Livingston, Lapeer, Washtenaw, St. Clair and other counties throughout Michigan.

HMS is a member of the National Association of Realtors, Michigan Association of Realtors and most major real estate boards including the Birmingham-Bloomfield Board of Realtors.
