As soloists Orchestra's own rank with the best

Morart's Sinfonia Concertante for Winds, K. 297b., is performed less than the K. 364 for Violin and Viola. While I think the later to while I think the later to do the latest Development of the performance featured so losis from the ornetistar, rather than outside ones, but there was absolutely no sarrifice in quality, Donald Baker, oboc, Theodore Oten clarinet, Robert Williams bassoon and Eugene Wade horn, are all top musiclass, even when judged by the strictest standards.

The refined mustical dialogue between solitss and the reduced or cheetra, under visiting conductions when the musting completed away, I wished it works inner solition by the capacity audience - a representation by the capacity audien
