Larkshire students win national awards

Students in Larkshire Elementary School won five national awards in the Junior American Citizens contests sponsored by Daughters of the American Revolution.

The contests are open to all youth from kindergarten through 12th grade and each contest category at each grade level is judged individually. The Larkshire entries were sponsored by Three Flags Chapter DAR.

Second graders in Room 2 took a first-place award for creating a banner.

Third graders in Room 11 took a first-place award for creating a banner.

Third graders in Room 12 took a first-place award in the Special Project category.

Second graders in Room 4 took a third-place award in the Special Programs category.

Third graders in Room 11 took a third-place award for their stamp design.

In addition Larkshire students won 39 state awards.

This year the contest theme was "An Historical Landmark Existing Prior to 1790."
