6 Beautiful babies take prizes

Six beautiful babies were awarded special prizes by the Farmington Area Community Women in their 11th Annual Baby Beautiful Contest. The community service group conducted the contest to raise money for Sudden Infant Death Syndrome. With 47 entries, $333 was raised for the local SIDS chapter. Several local businesses contributed prizes to make the contest for two age categories: 1-6 months and 7-12 months were set up.

Three winners were selected by the Baby Beautiful Committee in each age category.

In the 1-6 month category, the 1st place winner is Amanda Kay Williamson, 3 months old in her photo. Her parents are Tammy and Russ, of Farmington Hills. Amanda wins a portrait package from Focal Pointe Studio of Farmington.

The second place winner, Kristen Nicole Slack, was also 3 months old in her entry photograph. She, and her parents, Lawrence and Susan of Southfield won a $50 Savings Bond from Metro Bank of Farmington.

Charles John Oppenheimer, son of Steve and Dorri of Farmington Hills took 3rd place. He was five months old in his picture, and won a cassette and book "Baby Diary" from Baby & Me in Farmington, and a gift certificate from Children's Bookshop in Southfield.

The 1st place winner in the 7-12 month category was Stephanie Marie Eady. She was 8 months old in her winning photograph; and resides with mom Jamie Lyons in Farmington Hills. Stephanie wins a portrait package from Focal Pointe Studio of Farmington.

Jeffrey James Lawley, age 8 months in his photo, was 2nd place winner. He and his parents Jeff and Anna of Farmington Hills will receive gift certificates from Gabe Shoes and Creative Learning Center of Farmington Hills, and a stuffed bear from Marmel Gifts & Toys.

Third place winner was 10 month old John Douglas Wilgucki II, son of Lynne and John Wilgucki of Farmington Hills. John won gift certificates from Baby & Kids Bedrooms and Borders Bookstore of Novi.

The six winners were honored at Farmington Area Community Women's meeting in May.

The Community Women invite women in the area about their community service group's projects, family socials and fun-filled events. For information, call Michelle Paul at 477-5893.
