

Barton Malow names new VPs

Barton Malow Co. of Southfield announced its newly elected vice presidents. They are Lorita Callaghan, project financial control and MIS; Daniel Feliks, health/research group; James Giacchino, public/educational group; Thomas Hitz, health/research group; Milton Polso, public/education group.

James F. McAree joined the Southfield office of Grubb & Ellis as a broker in the Industrial division. He was formerly a partner with Corbell McAree Brothers in Plymouth.

Models are open at Hunter's Pointe condominiums on Hunter north of Ford and west of Wayne roads in Westland. An 88-unit development, it offers 28 ranches and 60 townhouses.

Construction has begun on Greenpoint at Copper Creek cluster houses on 13 Mile between Halstead and Haggerty in Farmington Hills. Townhouse and ranch models are available in the 136-unit development.

Models are at the original Greenpoint at 14 Mile and Halstead in West Bloomfield.

Kojalan Properties, Bloomfield Hills, acquired the Rochester Corporate Center and a building at 1350 Hamlin, both in Rochester Hills.

Grubb & Ellis arranged the sale of a 15-acre parcel in Plymouth's North Commerce Park for Isuzu Motors. The deal was negotiated by Jim McClellan and Greg Kleiber.

Jonna Cos. will break ground on Tower 300 of Chestnut Hills on 42.5 acres between Eight Mile, Haggerty and I-75 in Livonia. The development will include two office towers of 12 and nine stories respectively and a 200-room (Compro) Hotel.

The first phase was completed last year and houses the Horizon Health and Surgery Center.

Project architect is Luchenbach/Ziegelman & Partners of Birmingham. Johnson, Johnson and Roy of Ann Arbor designed the landscape.

Three project administrators have been named at Harley Ellington Pierce Yee Associates of Southfield. They are Christopher I. Dow, William G. Gillies and David J. Power.

The 20th Village Green apartment complex is preleasing studio, one- and two-bedroom apartments off Haggerty, south of Ford in Canton Township. Village Green is a Holtzman & Silverman development.

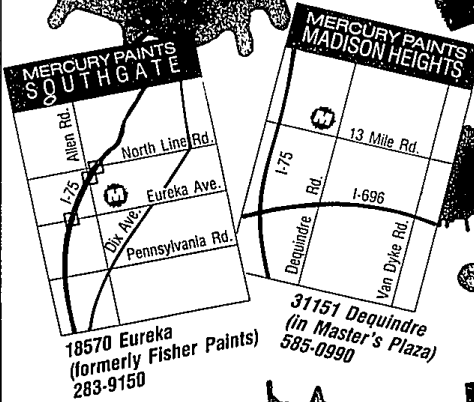

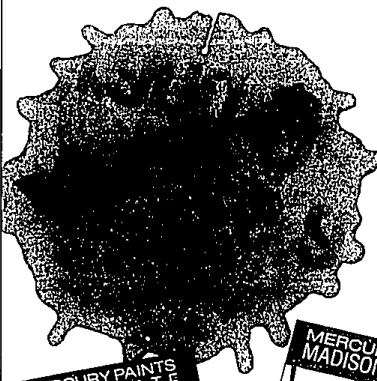

Power

Holtzman & Silverman's 20th apartment development is Village Green of Canton with 272 units on 31 acres. Construction started in late 1989. Occupancy begins in June. Rents range from the high $400s to low $700s.
