

Mercy honors 196 grads

A total of 196 women graduated from Mercy High School June 1 at the Baldwin Pavilion at Meadow Brook in Rochester Hills.

Honored were seniors Susan Broughton of West Bloomfield as class valedictorian and Althea Alviar of Farmington Hills as salutatorian.

Students from the Farmington Hills school participated in a baccalaureate mass the evening before graduation, and enjoyed the traditional senior all-night party following graduation ceremonies, according to Sister Jame Mackowiak.

"Everything was just beautiful this year," she said. "I think this was one of the nicest graduations we've had."

Broughton plans to attend Boston College this fall where she will major in arts and sciences. She graduated Phi Beta Kappa, was a member of the National Honor Society and the Spanish Honor Society, and was named to this area's All-Academic Team.

Alviar will attend the University of Michigan this fall. She also graduated Phi Beta Kappa, and was a

Flammer cruises to board seat by nearly 2-1 margin over Fugit

By Darrell Clom

Walled Lake school board incumbent David Flammer swept to victory in Monday's election, defeating challenger Jim Fugit by a nearly 2-to-1 margin.

Flammer garnered 1,775 votes to Fugit's 921, winning a two-year term in the school board's only contested race, school officials said.

Incumbents G. William Knight and Joel Silberblatt ran unopposed for four-year terms on the seven-member board. Knight received 2,375 votes; Silberblatt, 2,104.

Flammer became a board appointee in January after former school trustee Kathy Mizzi resigned and made a career move to New York. His election victory will allow him to fulfill the remaining two years of Mizzi's unexpired four-year term.

munications, attributed his win to name recognition.

"I expected to do fairly well because I've been in the district awhile and was a teacher and coach," the Commerce Township resident said Tuesday.

HE TAUGHT for six years in the district — two years at Walled Lake Elementary and four years at Loon Lake Elementary. He also coached girls volleyball and track and boys junior varsity basketball at Central High School.

"There wasn't really a burning issue to line up the troops on either side, so I think the fact that people knew me helped," Flammer said. "I'm pleased to be elected and have the opportunity to help as we move in the direction of making the Walled Lake School District one of the best districts in the state."

Fugit, a 44-year-old Wisconsin resident and a marketing representative for IBM Corp., had conceded that he was at a "slight disadvantage" because of Flammer's incumbency and name recognition.

The winners in Monday's election will join holdover board trustees Sammy Ruetenik, Esther McInnis, Marc Belsky and Cynthia Camplin.

It took election officials until 2:30 a.m. Tuesday to count school board race votes from the district's nine precincts, said Les Carlson, election chairman.
