Since most of the organized leagues are sanctioned, ABC/WIBC and the local bowing associations as well, it is timely to mention that if you were in a sanctioned-league dur-ing the 83-95 oscaos, you do not have to pay again for the same in a summer league. On the other hand, if a beginning league bowier wishing to bow in a summer league, pays the 36 sanc-tioning fee and joins ar egual fail/ winter league in the 90-81 secaon, the sanction fee is fully paid in the witter league.

The award is based on games, se-ries, participation in tournaments and overall average during the sea-son. Only five boys are selected from each age division. McDonaid, who competes in the Boys Major Division, also received an award for the high boys game of 289 in the City Tournament and was honored for the 811 series he bowled last November, a state record until recently.

McDonald has bowled in youth leagues since the age of 8 and re-cently completed four years with the Sunday Youth Classic Traveling League. His high average for the season was 207. He also shot a 300 game last October.

Other accomplishments in the last year include third place in All Events, fourth in City Mixed Doubles, fifth in City Doubles and fifth in City Singles Tournament. McDonald has won $800 in schol-arship money through his bowling. He received a $400 scholarship from the Pro Shope Doubles League at Drakeshire Lanes in Farmington Hills and $400 for finishing first in the SASF Classic League at Drak-eshire.
