ANN ARBOR SIGN ORDINANCE COURT DECISION

(Ity Manager Dian reported on the Ann Arbor Sign Ordinance that was tilispical before visiting fraigh Mahindar of Livingston County

Circuit Dorrt, who filed an opinion that the Ann Arbor Sign Ordinance were an invalid exercise of such power.

It was the opinion of the court that the Ann Arbor sign ordinance was an unreasonable police power regulation, was too general, too bread in its attempted application, and did not comply in its ensciment to rainatory regulation and was an unconstitutional violation of ferestion of speech; press and religion.

The final order has not been entered and until this is done to endinance will stay in effect. The problem with this opinion makes no speech reference to any of the testimony or enablist oldered. It is speech to the court to be most permastive. Moreover the opinion invalidates the court to be most permastive. Moreover the opinion invalidates the contrained in testifiers, Then it is obtained to the ordinance in the other and the ordinance in the other of the ordinance with the ordinance in the other ordinance in the ordinance in the other ordinance in the ordinance in ordinance in the ordinance in the ordinance in the ordinance in ordinance in the ordi
