Troop 263 is called "The Action Troop"

The Action Troop. That's what Boy Scout Troop 263 is called. Troop 263, in existence for 29 years, meets 7 p.m. Wednesdays at Kenbrook Elementary school.

The troop has an excellent outdoor program with a campout or event each month. Events for this scouting year include a District Camporee, four backpacking and camping hikes, a council-sponsored popcorn sale, a father-son basketball game, a visit to an archery range, an overnight to Cranbrook Institute, an obstacle course competition, and a council-sponsored bowl-a-thon.

In the summer, scouts attend a week-long program at Clinton Valley's Lost Lake Scout Reservation Camp near Clare, Mich.

One of the community service projects is helping the Farmington Elks Club put on a haunted Halloween display for cystic fibrosis children. The scouts decorate large boxes to resemble houses at Halloween time and create a street scene for the children to trick or treat safely.

The troop is currently training for a high adventure trip in June, 1991, to the Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico for a two week trek of hiking and backpacking.

Any boy who has completed the 5th grade or is 11 years old and is interested in joining Troop 263, can call Joe Lynn, 681-9547 or John Goshorn, 489-0979.

When it's a lot worse than just a scraped knee.

We all know that nothing serious ever happens to a child, but if it does, the C.S. Mott Children's Hospital at the University of Michigan Medical Center is ready with expert help.

And you get them both with M-CARE, the only HMO that links all the resources of the U of M Medical Center to the personal care of your family doctor and your nearby hospital. M-CARE covers you for office visits, checkups, hospitalization—even emergency helicopter transport.

Of course, with the M-CARE network of hospitals in cities like Royal Oak, Dearborn and Rochester, you don't always have to go to the U of M Medical Center. But isn't it good to know it's there whenever you need it? To find out more, ask your employer. Or call M-CARE at 747-8700.
