Boys' Jolly Prank Costs Driver, Insured Parents

EDITOR:
This letter is particularly to the Farmington parents of those children who board the school bus on 11 Mile and Skye Drive (east of Middle Belt) at about 7:15 each morning,
although it could have happened anywhere.

about 7:15 each morning, although it could have happened anywhere.

I suppose it's a little boring standing on a dark street corner at seven o'clock in the morning. So to break the morning that the second the bus, they simply roll the snowballs into the road behind the bus. An innocent enough prank and after all what harm could a "snowball" do?

But wait a minute. This is an another than the middle of winter.

No doubt the kids had no lead the property insured, I was out thought the property insured, I was out thought the snowball into the road behind the bus. An innocent enough prank and after all what harm could a "snowball" do?

Saved A Life

EDITOR:
Today, we the public do not hear of many good things about our fire and police departments. This letter is to thank four men in Livonia who helped in an emergency.
At 4 a.m. on Dec. 8, when I placed a call for an ambul-quire another great shop-

MRS. G. W. LaFONTAINE Farmington,

ance, the operator connected me with the Livonia Police Dept. Very quickly two policemen were here and into far behind were two firemen with their lifesaving equipment. The police kept dialing the phone to get an ambulance here quickly. To these four men, we want to say "Thank you and God bless you." These four men helped save a life of a father of four and a wonderful husband.

EDITOR'S NOT'E Livonia EDITOR'S What does the city want its taxpayers to do with such items the commercial removal services claim are too big to be picked up? The only chance, the city has given us is to load the material in a car and take it to the city car and take it to the city dump where, upon arriving. Some will be informed there is a fee based upon what you are driving – a car, wagon or truck. In this case the fee was $2 for a delivery made in a pickup truck.

in a pickup truck.

Why should we overtaxed residents in this city pay double for trash delivery? Someone goofed somewhere along the line, and as usual the goof comes out of the taxpayers' pocket. The city spends hours and dollars planning and building to beau.
