

Baubles

Hill and Dale Garden Club members are getting ready for "Heritage Holiday Tour: A House of Inspiration," the week of Nov. 25 to Dec. 2 in Victor's Center, Heritage Park. Members will decorate the Victorian-inspired Christmas tree called "Baubles, Bangles and Beads," to be auctioned off preview night, Nov. 24, and will sell Victorian styled tree ornaments such as parasols, fans, tussie-mussie rings, hats and potpourri. Holiday decorated door swags will be for sale and so will holly, mistletoe and greens, sold by the pound. Marcia Stewart, above left, sews a parasol ornament. Gladys King, above right, decorates Victorian fans. Below at left Shirley Perkins prepares the dried flowers that are part of some of the Victorian ornaments.

Residents decorate for Festival of Trees

Quite a few residents of Farmington and Farmington Hills have used their decorating talents for Festival of Trees, the annual benefit for Children's Hospital of Michigan.

bread Village who study culinary arts at Oakland Community College are Marjorie Anderson, Jeffery Diskin, Kristen Gilgallon, Carla Huchzermeyer, Kareen Kubicki and Marissa Miles.

Volunteers are needed

Common Ground, Oakland County's 24 hour crisis center, needs volunteers to provide telephone and face-to-face crisis intervention during the daytime. Screening required, but previous experience is not necessary. Excellent training is provided.

Schroeters Flowers in Farmington Hills decorated one of the trees. Among the designers who contributed to The Aisle of Wealth are Barbara Derby of Farmington, and members of Hill and Dale Garden Club and North Farmington Garden Club.

The Festival of Trees is open from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. from Saturday Nov. 17 through Sunday Nov. 25 in Cobo Halls Conference and Exhibition Center.

Also needed are volunteers willing to help clerical and fund development staff with typing and computer work. Experience on computer is not necessary.
