

Beat the Blahs . . .

plan a picnic

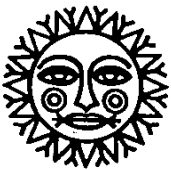

PICNIC IN THE SNOW? --Why not? Farmington Girl Scout Troop 271 had a great time this winter when they visited Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford. And before you say, "Yeah, but they're young!" notice that there was a lovely trio of leaders there too. They are from left Mrs. Robert Lademan, Mrs. Robert Carlo and Mrs. Harry Roach all of Farmington. You can't be "blah" and keep pace with a lively troop of girls, can you ladies?

APPLAUD CLAUDE! --So what if you can't skate as well as Claude Big (center) of Bonnet Hill, Farmington. You can head for Kent Lake in Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford and applaud the skaters like him, try a few turns of your own and warm up in the great food and rest shelter seen in the background.

TO BOGGAN OR NOT TOBOGGAN--That shouldn't be a question for someone who wants to meet winter on its own terms. Find yourself a hill, like the one in Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford. Kensington has two special toboggan runs, with a larger one for those more experienced in the sport and a smaller one for beginners. Just before you go down the slope, we suggest you yell, "Goodbye blaaaaaaaaaaaaahs!" --it will do wonders for your spirits.
