

STREET SCENE

The Observer & Eccentric® Newspapers

Monday, December 24, 1990 O&E

• • 10

COVER STORY

His Name is

Alive

Warren DeFavor's band, His Name is Alive, masters the stage in a recent show at the Majestic Theater after a stunning studio debut, "Livonia" on AD records. You'll find Larry O'Connor's review of the concert on page three.

PAGE 2

It's campy and sexy in the vein of "The Rocky Horror Picture Show." The Tele-Arts Theater is showcasing "The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari" and rest assured, it's nothing like the 1919 original.

PAGE 6

Wondering what to give the naught and the wannabe naughty on your Christmas list? There's a goodly number of catalogs that have plenty of ever so tacky ideas. Just hum the "12 Days of Christmas" and read on.

Also inside:

■ Page 4 - People either love 'em or hate 'em but the big question is what to do with those leftover fruitcakes. We have a few suggestions.

■ Page 5 - Stand-up comedian Vic Dunlap is featured in Street Cracks.

