Dear Mrs. Green,
I always enjoy reading your column in The Observer & Eccentric Newspapers. I would appreciate your analyzing my handwriting. I am a housewife, age 54.

Thank you for analyzing my handwriting.

suffer. When this happens you may retreat to your ivory tower to do a little daydreaming.

Feelings of joy, elation, disappointment, sadness, etc., are not easily concealed as you tend to be rather emotional by nature. And your emotions can fluctuate rather quickly at times.

You are not living just for the moment. But are one who sets goals for yourself. Many of these goals necessitate challenge on your part. Helping you to achieve your goals is good concentration. You like to zero in on one thing at a time and dislike being distracted when involved in a project. You are not unhappy working behind the scenes.

You are sensitive to criticism of your personal appearance. Criticism in this area can be unsettling. You dislike friction and will often acquiesce or compromise in an effort to avoid it.

At times, your feelings of self-esteem seem to waver a bit. Because you have been hurt in the past, you appear to be on guard and defensive

Dear Mrs. Green,
I always enjoy reading your Eccentric Newspaper. I love my handwriting. I am a wife and the mother of three children.

to prevent this from continuing. It is important to consider that this can be more harmful to you than to the object of your resentment.

I see you as a most helpful friend. You often share time, kindness and resources with others. Still you are rarely wasteful and use care in handling your finances.

I am happy to see a sense of humor in your handwriting. It can add spice and savor to your relationships and perspective to your life.

Jan. 23 is National Handwriting Day. National Handwriting Day is a salute to writing.

Your handwriting is as unique as your fingerprints. It responds to your brain impulses, to your motor reflexes, to your visual perception, nervous system, to your culture, family, teachers and environment. It reflects your habits, physical and mental being, and mood at the moment of writing.

National Handwriting Day is an ideal time to make the world aware that it should pay attention to the highly significant phenomenon of writing and the equally significant phenomenon of handwriting analysis (graphology).

If you would like your handwriting analyzed in the newspaper, write to Lorene Green, a certified graphologist, 26251 Schenck, Livonia 48150. Please use a full sheet of white, unlined paper, writing in the first person singular. Age, handwritings and full signature are all helpful. And objective feedback is always welcome.

On a shopping spree

Sweepstakes winner Eldon Marwede grabbed about $1,000 of merchandise in a five-minute run through F&M Distributors' Farmington Hills store. The Bloomfield Hills resident was one of 50 winners in a national sweepstakes sponsored by Bausch & Lomb, manufacturers of contact lenses and related eye-care products. Some of the items Marwede plucked from the shelves were pistachio nuts, Opium cologne, Drakkar Noir cologne, video and cassette tapes, a humidifier, an electric toothbrush and a blood pressure machine.
