A successful merge of beading and fabric, the Ballet gown's neckline, with the deeper V-neck back, leads into a snug asymmetric waist. Exotic hand beading of leaves and daisies spray the bodice and tunnel to a group of jeweled leaves at the hipline. This same detail rests on one shoulder. Puffed sleeves taper to the wrist. The all-over white ice in Allegro Satin is decorated with a pearl border. By House of Bianchi, Boston. At Alvin's Bridal, Birmingham.
