WEAR GREEN ON ST. PATRICK'S DAY, BUT REMEMBER WHY
The legend of St. Patrick has come down to us in such a form as to make us concentrate on its more whimsical aspects rather than its serious message. The greeting card racks sprout shamrocks and little men in green suits. Regardless of our ethnic backgrounds, we all become "Irish" on that day and don green garments. Hibernian melodies emanate from the radio stations. With all of that, we tend to forget the story of St. Patrick's perilous journey to Ireland to persuade the people to go and worship God, and that under much saller conditions we could do the same thing. So, when you go to your House of Worship, try to bring a friend or neighbor with you, and, and you'll both receive the blessings that St. Patrick spoke of so long ago.
A companion's words of persuasion are effective. Homer
"Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature."
-Mark 16:15
