

The fire's out!

A neighbor used a garden hose to put out a fire in the garage of a house on Quaker Valley about 10:30 a.m. Sunday. The homeowner told Farmington Hills firefighters she had emptied cigarette butts into a plastic trash can in the garage. The fire, which caused an estimated $5,500 in damage, was contained in the garage though smoke filled the house, according to a fire report.

police/fire calls

Listed below are some of the Farmington-area police incidents, fire calls and court cases reported during the past week:

• WARRANTS DROPPED

Federal weapons warrants against Farmington Hills gun buff Brian Oscar Lang have been temporarily dropped, according to police officials.

Final lab results have been delayed on weapons and explosive devices taken from Lang during a raid on his Briarcrest house early Feb. 11.

"The warrants have been dropped temporarily because the lab work didn't come back within the time allocated by the court," Farmington Hills police Chief William Dwyer said.

When final reports are complete, the U.S. Attorney's office representatives are expected to go to the grand jury and ask for indictments, police officials said.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Bill Magness was unavailable for comment.

Police and federal agents seized a cache of firearms, weapons, explosive devices and other weapons-related materials in the basement, where Lang lived with his parents' house in the Franklin Woods subdivision, seven miles from the Mile, east of Northwestern Highway.

Lang also faces trial in Clinton County Court on a state felony charge of receiving and concealing stolen property over $100 for two two-way Motorola radios police say were stolen from Detroit Board of Education-owned school Detroit.

Two other men are charged with spending to two smoke scares over the weekend. The first one at about 5:30 a.m. Friday, was at a house on Bunker Hill, where the homeowner's washing machine had an overheated motor. Firefighters removed the washing machine.

The second one occurred early Saturday morning when an electrical motor in a humidifier overheated at a house on Shrewsbury. Firefighters disconnected the water and unplugged the electrical supply to the humidifier.

• RIFLE CONFISCATED

Farmington Hills police confiscated a rifle from a resident on Ronseal about 8 p.m. Friday. The man was concerned when a neighbor who was intoxicated apparently tried to force open the door of his house.

• EGGS THROWN

A resident discovered someone had thrown about a dozen eggs at his house on Westmoreland Saturday. The eggs also were thrown at the roof of his house and his car. The resident said he had broken noises outside his house the night before, according to a Farmington Hills police report.

DAMAGE REPORTED

A 1991 Honda was damaged to the tune of $1,500 after someone used a key to scratch the car March 21. It was parked in the lot of T.J. Maxx, 33049 Grand River, in downtown Farmington.

clarification

A story in the March 25 Farmington Observer about local police chiefs' reaction to the April 1 police brutality incident should have quoted Farmington Hills police Chief William Dwyer as saying, "We're community oriented. We're proactive, not reactive."
