GOOD NEIGHBORS CAN BE COUNTRIES AS WELL AS PEOPLE
It has been said that we can choose our friends, but our relatives are wished on us. Moreover, this is true of our neighbors, who were also acquired by accident, but we can and should be good neighbors. Do the people next door watch your house when you go away, and do you offer to feed their dog when they take a vacation? This sort of good neighbor relationship can also be established between adjacent countries, like Canada and the United States, and fortunately, it has happened that way. This is evident from our continent-wide unguarded boundary line; our friendly competition in sports and other things. Let us thank the Lord for this, and pray that our good neighbor relationships will last forever, with both the house next door and the country next door. That long frontier is an example to every country and a pattern for the future of the world.
-Sir Winston Churchill
