

After dark

Dublin at night is gorgeous. City lights reflect off the river Liffey as young couples cross over the O'Connell Bridge to infiltrate Grafton Street. All daily rigors of work and school are put to rest when Dublin becomes one mass fraternity party. But there's more to this city on page 6D.

