Teens honored for volunteer work

Successful people usually keep busy — and the 13 Farmington-area high school students honored for their volunteer spirit certainly are no exceetion.

anga sensor students anomed their volunteer-spirit certainly are necessaried. How busy are they? Well, three of them were taching advance placement were taking advance placement wednesday morning and found it impossible to be at the Youth Recognition Breadfast held in their honer at the Community Center.

The bonores, all top students with bright futures, seemed to have something important in common — they belp others through volunteer work. "Volunteering makes a difference for them." said Madelyn Ryan, children of the Youth Recognition. Committee. "They're veryoung, but they're glying back to society already." Take honoree Kelly Anne Corr, a junior at Farmingion Harrison Hiela School. She has been active with the Harrison Interaction of the Youth Back to School. She has been active with the Harrison Interaction of the Youth Back to School. She has been active with the Harrison Interaction of the Youth Back to School. She has been active which the Harrison Interaction of the Youth Back to School She has been active which the Harrison Interaction of the Youth Back to School She has been active which the Harrison Interaction of the Youth Back to School She has been active and the Harrison Interaction of the Youth Back to School She has been active and the Harrison Interaction of the Youth Back to School She has been active and the Harrison Interaction of the Youth Back to School She has been active and the Youth Back to School She has been active and the Youth Back to School She has been active and the Youth Back to School She has been active and the Youth Back to School She has been active and the Youth Back to School She has been active and the Youth Back to School She has been active and the Youth Back to School She has been active and the Youth Back to School She has been active and the Youth Back to School She has been active and the Youth Back to School She has been active and the Youth Back to School She has been active and the Youth Back to School She has been active and the Youth Back to School She has b

OTHERS HAVE similar stories.
Pullip Allmen, an 1th grader at University of Detroit Jesuit High,
has been involved in the St. Fablan Church Youth Group projects which serve the community.

Church Youth Group projects which serve the community of the serve the community of the spalachla over the summers, repairing houses of needy families. He's also a regular volunteer at an inner-city Detroit soup liteties.

Jenny DeWard, a Merce.

soup kitchen.

Jenny DeWard, a Mercy High School senior, travels to nursing homes and rehabilitation centers to entertain as a member of the school singing group, the Mercyaires.

She is also on the leadership committee of the St. Fabian Youth Group and is helping organize a summer service project in Appalacia.
Cindy Ellen Korby, a Harrison senior, has a long history of volunteer work.

solid parties overly, a Hartison senior, has a long history of volunteer work. While just a seventh-grader, Korby worked for a month for Meals on Whiels, contributed 40 hours of services of the senior project and began working every two months for the Gleeners Food Bank. Korby is the current president of a local SADD (Students Against Drunk Driving). She has spearheaded SAAD publicity, fund-raisers and presentations. She has organized a citywide poster contest and has done peer resistance training with area fifth graders.

ALSO INVOLVED in SADD is Lynda Lorenz, a senior at Farmington High School. She contributes about five hours a week as co-president of the FHS chapter.

Lorenz has organized projects such as alcohol-awareness assemblies, "Don't-Drink-And-Drive" campaigns, and parades and dances promoting SADD themes.

She also works with fifth graders, helping them learn to resist peer pressure and say no to alcohol. As a member of the Madrigal singing group, she has performed at nursing group, she has performed at nursing group, she has performed at nursing the she was a state of the proposed of the

A Special Invitation

OPEN HOUSE

Sunday, May 19th 1:00 - 4:00

eting + Oymnastics + Computers - Natura Truit rts - Arts & Crafts + Go Custs - Dance + Pepperry ang - Animal Farm + Fond and Luke + Pelditeboss - Archery + Tennis And ... Lats and Lets of Fund

Be a Willoway Kid"

Crawford Handicap Day for seven

Crawford Handleap Day for seven summers.

She also has helped at the Fort Street Presbyterian Church soup kitchen and has worked with the Farmington Goodfellows. As president of the HIS Interact Club, she has worked to Adopt A-Highway, provide toys to several chartiles, ald the Salvation Army with children at the Sarah Fisher Home, teach Spanish to young children and transport scolor citizens to the Harrison Winter Concert.

She also has participated in the ter Concert.

She also has participated in the volunteer activities through B'nai Brith Youth organization.

Persh is founder of SAVE (Students Against Violence Against the Earth), an environmental group at Harrison. Its members enough agaper and Styrofoam recycling.

BEN PINSKY, another Harrison junior, is also beavily involved in the the school's Interact projects, this summer he will do volunteer work at St. Joseph's Hospital

St. Joseph's Hospital.
Pinsky, who has a 4.0 grade-point average, has been described by a teacher as "an outstanding leader in scholastics, sports and volunteering". a leader who finds time to think of others."

Since January, she has spent her after-school hours tutoring students at William Grace Elementary. She also helps others through the B'nai Brith youth organization.

DEBRAH ANNE Westerkamp, a Farmington High senior, has given more than 130 hours in such volunteer efforts a Sunday school teacher, president of her church acolyte group and as assistant blood drive organiter.

She is founder and president of Servare Terram, an environmental group at Fils. She also volunteers at the Farmington Community Library and as a craft teacher during vacation Bible school.

Joanne Yono, a Mercy juntor, has

Joanne Yono, a Mercy junior, has worked as a teacher's aide and baby sitter for her church.

Sitter for her church.

She also has donated time to the Ronald McDonaid Foundation, the Manna Meals Soup Ritchen and the Collits Foundation. She also helps out at her action by doing typing and competer Zalenko, a North Farmington auchior, helps students at William Grace Elementary through a program set up by her high school.

She has been an active member of the social action committee of her youth group. After visiting the former concentration camps in Poland last year, she produced a slide presentation which she shows to interest-edgroups in the area.

entation which she shows to interest-ed groups in the area.

She is in charge of raising funds for a school for mentally disabled children in Israel. She plans to do volunteer work at a camp this summer.

Michael Flanagan, superintendent of the Farmington Public Schools, handed out the awards at the recognition breakfast, which was sponsored by Farmington Youth Assistance.

The honorees, all top students with bright futures, seemed to have something important in common they help others through volunteer

ORCHARD-10 IGA

24065 Orchard Lake Rd.

MON.-SAT. 8-9; SUN. 9-5

CLIP THIS COUPON

TRIPLE COUPON

8.50% SAVINGS • ROLLOVERS 6 MONTH C.D. - CALL FOR RATES

Offering: • C.D.'s • Tax Free Funds • IRA Rollovers • Annuities Call our customer service representative at 476-1770

LIVONIA COMMUNITY

Accepting On Consignment

MATERNITY CLOTHES

133 E. Cady Northville off Sheldon, S. of Main

347-BABY Open Mon-Sat 10-6

Quality Recycled Clothing & Equipmen

ANNIE'S CELEBRATES SPRING $$ BONUS $$

TRADE 4 BOOKS IN GOOD CONDITION (min. 94.95 ca.) AND THIS AD FOR $10.00 TOWARD YOUR BOOK PURCHASES. ...cxpircs May 25, 1991

PLYMOUTH
FLOOR COVERING

Bruce Mannington
Flooring Torker Harde
Center State World Harden
Con Block W. of Farmington Rood 427-7120

Children's Story Hour Sat., May 18th -Call now to sign up!

ANNIE'S BOOK STOP

It's That

l'ime Again!

WILLOWAY - - 356-8123

Mile and Farmington Roads Simsbury Plaza 851-3560

The only Medically Supervised Exercise and Nutrition Program

Cardiac Rehab Available SUMMER SPECIAL

3 MONTHS for $9500

Offer Expires June 30, 1991

17940 Farmington Rd. 425-5544

6 om-10 pm M-Th. 6 om-9 pm Fri. 8 om-5 pm Sot. 8 om-4 pm Sun.

Trusted Hometown Newspapers That Maan Business

Observer & Accentric CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

844-1070 Oakland County -

591-0900 Wayne County 852-3222 Rochester/Rochester Hills

The Heritage of Yesterday; For Today

This 18th century Secretary, crafted in oak or cherry is every inch a classic. Special order many different styles with your choice of wood and finishes. Choose the heritage of yesterday for your home today.

Reg. $1339

SALE... 1897.

Hurry, Sale ends 6-1-91

