Makeover offered

"F&M Fabulous Makeover" contest will offer area women the chance to win a complete in-store makeover as well as compete to appear at the Glamour BeautyWays Show co-sponsored by F&M Distributors and Glamour Magazine June 1-2 in the Southfield Civic Center. An in-store makeover winner will be selected from each of the 22 metropolitan Detroit F&M stores.

The winners of the "F&M Fabulous Makeover" contest will receive an in-store hair and face makeover from top national cosmetologists and stylists. From among the 22 winners, 10 will be selected by Glamour Magazine to appear at the Glamour BeautyWays show as F&M models and be made up on the center stage by experts from leading cosmetics manufacturers such as Revlon and Almay.

Entry blanks for the "F&M Fabulous Makeover" contest will be available at beauty counters of all 22 metropolitan Detroit F&M stores and must be deposited in the Glamour BeautyWays Bag at the cosmetic counters in each store. All women age 18 and older are eligible to participate. No purchase is necessary.

The "F&M Fabulous Makeover" contest ends May 19. In-store makeovers for all winners will be given at the East Detroit and Tully Hall Farmington Hills F&M stores Tuesday, May 28.

The Glamour BeautyWays show will feature leading manufacturers and national experts on cosmetics, fragrances, hair and skin care. The show will include beauty and fitness demonstrations; seminars on beauty trends; product displays and sampling.

Celebrities at the show will be Carmen Harlan, Miss Michigan Leann Roth, WNIC's Linda Lancel, Gene Maxwell and Michael Harris.

F&M Distributors is a pioneer in deep-discount health and beauty aids, cosmetics and household supplies retailing. The first F&M store opened 35 years ago in Ferndale. The company has grown to more than $600 million in annual sales, retaining a 25 percent annual sales growth rate.
