

STREET SENSE

Test your compatibility

Dear Readers:
I was a guest on a recent Dayna Eubanks Show. The topic for the week was brides, and during the segment on which I appeared, we discussed sexual compatibility.

Today, I'm publishing the sexual compatibility quiz that we used on the show. It is a bit facetious, but not entirely. It is meant to be a stimulus for discussion for you and your significant.

As I stated, it was designed for engaged couples, but even those who are already married might profit from talking about these topics.

Let me know if you find something out that you hadn't known before.

Barbara

- A. 8 times a week
B. 5 times a week
C. Once a week
D. Once a month

(2) How long should you have foreplay before intercourse?

- A. 30 minutes
B. 15 minutes
C. 5 minutes
D. Foreplay isn't important

(3) How do you feel about oral sex?

- A. Sex can't be fun without oral sex.
B. Oral sex is fun but not necessary.
C. Oral sex is dirty.

(4) Do you believe in open marriage?

- A. Marriage must be monogamous.
B. Multiple partners are fun but not necessary.
C. Life's too short for just one partner.

Barbara Schiff

(5) You and your spouse just had a fight. You:

- A. Use sex to make up.
B. Avoid each other sexually until you feel better.

Sexual Compatibility Quiz

Share this with your significant other. How many of the questions did you have the same answer?

(1) How often do you feel that you and your spouse should have sex?

Stanley Kubrick's "Spartacus" (1960) will come to the Fox Theatre July 3-14 as part of its summer vintage film series.

ALTERNATIVE VIEWING

Continued from Page 2

to live music performances, but will soon screen films at least once a week. A full schedule should soon be announced for the cozy 300-seat venue.

The downtown Tele-Arts Theatre recently closed, but Carl Allison has taken his shows on the road under the auspices of the non-profit City Wide Cinema. He's off to a bad start, however, as last weekend's scheduled screenings of Dutch thriller "The Vanishing at the Music Hall" were hastily rescheduled for sometime next month.

The Redford and Michigan theaters continue to attract specialized audiences. Seniors will flock to the bi-weekly screenings of classic musicals with live organ recitals at the Redford while students experience old and new classics for the first time at the downtown Ann Arbor theater.

MEANWHILE, FREE series continue to pack them in. The Livonia Mall's Tuesday morning program often sells out, so to speak, with a month-long series of screen biographies (highlighted by "Last for Life" this week), followed by tributes to science fiction and westerns later this summer.

The Blockbuster series at Henry Ford Centennial Library in Dearborn can still count between 60-75 heads at their Monday evening screenings.

According to Howard Brooks, who introduces the films each week, the audience traditionally grows larger as the nights get hotter.

"Besides," he said, "I'm convinced that people like to get out and mix with an audience. It's not the same sitting home and watching video."

Gangsters have fun

Continued from Page 3

"I was a rude boy in high school," Bunkley said. "It was fun, but after awhile I said, 'Let's not be trite about it.' Why can't I listen to punk and funk as well?"

Because Gangster Fun is a ska band, people automatically lump them into reggae category. At one reggae club, the group's brand of Caribbean-influenced dance music didn't win over the audience.

Such things are merely chalked up as learning experiences. While the members of Gangster Fun are not full-fledged pessimists, four years of gigging has made them wiser. After a couple of tours, band members are not as trusting of club owners or groups in other cities. "We're just normal guys," Bunkley said. "Sometimes we like to put our egos on just because everyone else has theirs on. We can be just as obnoxious as anyone else."

But the Gangsters just want to have fun.

ANN ARBOR CIVIC THEATRE PRESENTS
OBSERVATIONS
The Foreigner
An Inspired Comic Pump
SPONSORED BY:
GREAT LAKES RANCORP
VALIDITY - VALIDITE
By Larry Shaw (1) Directed by Conrad Mason
(1) AT THE LYNN MENDELSON THEATRE (1)
June 12-15, 1991 - 8 p.m. (2) Saturday Matinee - 2 p.m.
For Ticket Information Before June 9, Call 662-7282
For Ticket Information After June 9, Call 763-1085

Appearing in "Jungle Fever" are Wesley Snipes (from left), Veronica Webb, Spike Lee and Annabella Sciorra.

GRADING THE MOVIES

Continued from Page 1

"The Silence of the Lambs" (C-, R, 115 minutes).

Disgusting film about FBI Cadet (Jodi Foster) confronting cannibalistic psychiatrist and serial killer. Despite technical accomplishment, this film is only for those who take ghoulish delight in the suffering of others.

"Sleeping With the Enemy" (C+, R, 95 minutes).

Julia Roberts' excellent performance as battered wife who takes matters into her own hands can't overcome weak scenario about psychotic hubbie.

"Soapdish" (B-, PG-13, 96 minutes).

Overcrowded with stars, this soap opera about television soap operas, is contrived but OK.

"Stone Cold" (B, 90 minutes).

Brian Bosworth is an undercover cop working to bring outlaw biker-gang to justice.

"Switch" (A-, R, 90 minutes).

Murdered-chauvinist-womanizer returns to earth looking for a woman who will speak on his behalf. But there's a catch.

"Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles II: The Secret of the Ooze" (PG, 88 minutes).

Lots of action but little violence as everybody's favorite turtles do it again.

"Thelma and Louise" (A, R, 130 minutes).

Sensational and unique buddies-

Robert Townsend's "The Five Heartbeats" is the story of a fictitious black singing group that makes it to the top.

on-the-road film starring Susan Sarandon and Geena Davis.

"Truth or Dare" (F, R, 118 minutes).

Obscene and pretentious display of Madonna's egomania.

"What About Bob?" (B, PG, 97 minutes).

Cute but lightweight story with Bill Murray as patient and Richard Dreyfuss as therapist.

"Wild Hearts Can't Be Broken" (A-, G, 85 minutes).

There's nothing junky about the sound of the Junk Monkeys who will perform June 13 at Lili's in Hamtramck.

IN CONCERT

Continued from Page 1

June 15, at the Station Lounge, 32413 Michigan Ave., Wayne. For information, call 721-2860.

Tell Us... what you think

It's as easy as 953-2042

We value our readers and advertisers and care about what they think. To make it easier to find out, we've installed a direct line to receive and record your call 24 hours a day.

Here is your chance to:

- Tell us what you like
- Tell us what you don't like
- Tell us what you like to see in your hometown newspaper.

Your call will be entirely confidential. So tell us what you think—we really do want to know.

THE Observer & Eccentric
NEWSPAPERS

953-2042

24 HOURS A DAY

STREET SEEN

Denise Susan Lucas

Our intrepid Street Scene reporter is always looking for the unusual and welcomes comments and suggestions from readers and entrepreneurs. Send those to this column in care of this newspaper, 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia 48150, or call 953-2191.

Bunny love

The revival of patriotism comes shining through this pair of patriotic bunnies, made by Cinnamonroll. Handcrafted of paper and cloth mache, he sports a stars and stripes outfit and flag. She's carrying a basket, filled with everything needed for a picnic, and wears a sailor-style dress. Priced at $70-$80 at the Apple Wreath, Temptations for the Home, 32626 W. Seven Mile Road, Livonia.

Wearable art

Dad won't need to get the tool box out to hang this art. His neck will do just fine. The Print Gallery in Southfield has a selection of all silk one-of-a-kind ties by '60s pop artist Peter Max. The curves, lines and colors of his work have the enigmatic expansiveness and dreamy freedom, but the sense of humor and tongue-in-cheek eclecticism of the '60s. Priced at $45 each, they're available at the Print Gallery, 29103 Northwestern Highway, Southfield.