

Cast your opinions when 'My Vote Counts' airs

Your opinions and reactions are encouraged as you watch the television show "My Vote Counts."

This is a series focusing on voting for all citizens. It is scheduled to be seen every Wednesday at 8 p.m. and Thursday at 2 p.m. The month of July will find Tom Baer, editor of the Farmington Observer, and Barbara Moorehouse, from the League of Women's Voters project: Kids Voting, discussing the Observer and elections.

The lively discussion is hosted by Shelly Paros. This TV show is designed and presented by Farmington Hills Committee to Increase Voter Participation. A new subject is introduced each month.

The August show will be about the women's right to vote hosted by Julietta Hovaness. The program will feature Dr. Gladys McKenney with dramatization and information about the ramifications on the 19th Amendment, passed Aug. 6, 1920, which gave women the right to vote.

Please let your opinions and reaction be known by calling 473-9581.

Monthly Allergy Tip

Enjoy the beautiful summer weather, whether you have allergies or not!

Don't allow allergies to keep you from enjoying sports and other outdoor activities. Reduce the symptoms of sneezing, congestion, coughing, wheezing, and red, itchy eyes.

Find out the cause of your discomfort and learn how it can be treated with medications that do not have unpleasant side effects, such as drowsiness and loss of alertness or coordination. Don't suffer another day! We can help. We take the time to listen and explain.

Michael S. Rowe, M.D.
