

Walter's finishes on winning note

Instead of directing his frustration at an umpire, Redford Little Caesars coach John Moraitis spoke out Friday about his players' attitude after losing to Walter's Appliance, 7-3, in the Livonia Collegiate Baseball League regular season finale at Ford Field.

The loss was the sixth straight for Caesars, which finished the regular season at 16-11-1, three games behind champion Walter's. Moraitis was ejected from Wednesday's 14-4 loss to Walter's by home plate umpire Chuck Brady, but this time he had no run-ins with Brady, who was on the basepaths.

Despite the loss, Caesars is one of four teams that have qualified for the league playoffs, which begin July 31. Walter's is the No. 1 seed at 20-7-1.

"We ended up in second place, but I'm not bragging or nothing like that," Moraitis said. "I don't see any momentum, and there was no intensity today. When we were losing today, I looked on the bench (from the third base coach's box) and saw players telling jokes, laughing, no one was rooting each other on. I'm not out there for myself. I'm out there for them."

Caesars led 1-0 in the first after leadoff man Earl Johnson doubled and later scored on a passed ball, but Walter's scored two runs in the third

SF boys win tourney

The South Farmington Mustang Gold tournament baseball team (ages 9 and 10) won the Third Annual NFWB Tournament the weekend of July 13-14.

South Farmington rallied from an opening game, 3-2 loss to Livonia to bring its march to the championship with a 13-13, mercy victory over Allen Park.

South Farmington clinched the title with a 22-1 defeat of host North Farmington-West Bloomfield, capturing the first-place trophy based on its superior defensive record throughout the tournament.

Team members include Brad Baker, Zack Burton, Mark Cole, Jeff Frederick, Jamison Guest, Jeff Haller, Adam Harris, Mike Hoed, Steve Jackson, Pete Jacques, Dan Kimmel, Kenny Lee, John Lis, Jonathan Marchel, Paul Myers and Grant Weber.

The team is coached by Paul Jacques, Jerry Marchel, Larry Cole and Bud Kimmel.

and four in the sixth. Jay Gabel, of Livonia Churchill, hit a two-run home run in the third to score Jerry Koester (Westland John Glenn) from second for a 2-1 lead.

Four straight hits during Walter's fifth-inning rally helped send Caesars' starting pitcher Jeff Bates to the bench.

Paul Pirinello (Redford Catholic Central) and Henry Ford Community College, Koester, Bob Bullach (Farmington) and Gabel had consecutive hits in the third, fourth and fifth innings. Craig Overalits (Livonia Franklin and Henry Ford) also contributed to the rally.

Anthony Chandler delivered an RBI single in the seventh to finish Walter's scoring.

Curtis White, the third of three Walter's pitchers, earned the win in three innings of work.

Walter's coach Mike Keller is cautiously optimistic about the playoffs. "The only thing about the playoffs is everybody is 0-0; it's a new season," he said.

DEIWAU, 4, PIERGER 3: Deiwaui stayed in contention for the league playoffs Wednesday with a narrow win over Pierger and Pierger at Ford Field. Tim Bruce limited Pierger to one earned run, struck out nine and walked two over seven innings to win his fourth game against one loss. Pierger's Dave Wood suffered the loss in going the distance and scattering only five Deiwaui hits.

Deiwaui's Jason Abbe broke a 3-3 tie in the fifth with a two-out single that scored Eric Sampter from third base.

Leading Pierger's attack was Todd Francis, who was 3-for-4, and Aaron Mach, who had an RBI on a sacrifice. Matt Lehoucq had a fielder's choice RBI for Pierger and teammate Bill Florio had an RBI double. The two teams met again Friday, but details were unavailable.

HINES PARK 5, CANUCKS 3: Bill Teraki (Madonna University) had a three-run homer in the fifth Wednesday to carry Hines Park to a win over the Canucks at Plymouth Canton. Mike Culver (Canton) had two hits to support the winning pitching of Chad Logan, who moved his record to 3-1.

TOTAL TRAVEL 9, WENDY'S 6: Total Travel won a wild game Wednesday with three runs in the bottom of the seventh at the University of Detroit.

A walk to Gary Devine (Farmington Hills) forced home Rob MacDonald (Harrison) with the winning run. Total was cruising with a 6-1 lead into the sixth inning, before starting pitcher Darren Clark ran into trouble.

Wendy's scored seven runs in the top of the seventh to take an 8-6 lead, and Scott Nies had to come on to end the rally. Gary Devine, Kevin Young (Farmington), MacDonald and Jason Lichtman had two hits each. MacDonald hit a home run.

NFWB 1, which finished 28-2 overall (its only losses were to nationally-ranked teams from Baltimore and Cincinnati), ended up one game ahead of Dearborn (19-1). Westland was third at 17-3.

WESTLAND 16, ANN ARBOR 2: Westland Federation finished the regular season with this easy win Thursday at Concordia College.

A 10-run fifth inning gave Westland Federation a commanding 15-2 lead and helped preserve the win for starter Marcus Samovskiy (Livonia Churchill), who lasted 3 1/2 innings.

Mark Rutherford (Churchill) pitched in relief of Samovskiy, getting the final out with the bases loaded in the fourth inning and pitching shutout ball the rest of the way.

Rutherford also showed his importance offensively, recording two hits, including a triple. Paul Kuhn (Redford Catholic Central) had three hits and two RBIs, while Walter Hicks and Greg Tamas (Westland John Glenn) clubbed two hits apiece.

Federation will play in the Plymouth Salem district later this month.

Michigan Open, he was tied for the second round in the Buick Open.

He played in the '84 and '87 U.S. Opens and has competed in six Buicks. Brady is the first alternate for this year's Buick Open: He lost a playoff but is hoping to receive an exemption from the sponsor.

Brady, who spent six years as the pro at Bay Valley Country Club in Bay City, plans to participate in the Michigan PGA Aug. 19-21 at Indianwood, the Yamaha in Lewistown Aug. 5-6 and the state match-play tournament at his home course in early September. The match-play winner from last year will play in the Bell Showdown.

Brady took a break from the regular routine of a club pro last year when he played the Ben Hogan Tour.

"My wife, Judy, and I loaded up the van and traveled for 30 weeks across the country," he said. "I didn't play as well as I thought I should have, but we learned a lot, saw a lot of nice places and made a lot of friends."

"But we had to go back to work to pay a few bills. I was looking for a job back in this state and was fortunate to be invited to work at Detroit Golf Club."

Brady, who missed getting his PGA Tour by one stroke two years ago and subsequently qualified for the Hogan Tour, still has hopes of one day making the regular tour.
