'Fabulous Stains' colors A&E

By Dan Rice

Teenage rebellion and musical ambition are the escalating thrusts within director Lou Adler's Ladies and Gentlemen: The Fabulous Stains, coming to A&E on Saturday, Aug. 24. Diane Lane stars as a wannabe punk-rock star in this never-released feature film whose solid cast includes Christine Lahti, Peter Donat, Laura Dern, and members of the Clash and the Sex Pistols as, what else, a British punk band.

Imagine dulcet tones wafting through the cool Swiss Alps and you're halfway to the Montreux Jazz Festival, premiering Tuesday, Aug. 20, on A&E. With the likes of Roberta Flack, Van Morrison, George Benson, Miles Davis and the Neville Brothers, there's a danger of hot sounds melting the snowcaps.

Thursday, Aug. 22, The Family Channel will present a special episode of The Flintstones Kids in which Wilma is tempted to try marijuana by Stony, leader of the "in" crowd. Will she "just say no," or end up stoned in Bedrock? Never fear, for as a role model, Wilma remains as solid as a ... well, you know the pun.

Not a graduate of Whatsamatta U., Dr. Anthony Bubenik poses as a moose in order to lure the wooly creatures toward the cameras in the "Language of Antlers," on The Discovery Channel's Discovery Sunday, Aug. 18.

Woody Harrison discusses his co-starring turn in Doc Hollywood on Tuesday's Entertainment Tonight.
