

GI Is Honored For Bravery

Army Specialist Fourth Class Joseph D. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Williams, 565 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal with Valor Device for heroism in connection with military operations against a hostile force in the Republic of Vietnam. He was a student at Plymouth High, leaving in 1966 to enlist in the Army.

The citation, directed by President Johnson on Aug. 24, pays tribute to Williams' exceptionally valorous actions on April 8, 1968, while serving as a rifleman in Company D, 4th Battalion, 3rd Infantry.

JOSEPH D. WILLIAMS

ON THAT DATE, his rifle squad was participating in a combat sweep in the vicinity of Quang Ngai when they suddenly came under intense fire from an enemy force of undetermined size.

As the hostile fire increased, his squad was unable to maneuver to positions where they could effectively repel the attack.

With disregard for his own safety, Williams and another soldier left their covered positions and began crawling towards the enemy until they were within hand grenade range.

By this time, the hostile forces had begun concentrating their fire upon the two men and as they neared the hostile position, the enemy began hurling grenades at them.

FOLLOWING a barrage of grenades, Williams and his companion assaulted the hostile position, firing rapidly and accurately as they ran.

All three enemy personnel occupying this position were killed and the rest of the friendly force was able to maneuver to a more secure position, enabling them to eventually defeat the enemy force.

The citation stated Williams' personal bravery and devotion to duty are in keeping with the highest traditions of the military service and reflect great credit upon himself, the American Division, and the United States Army.
