

Homecoming Season Opens This Weekend At FHS

The town's high school homecoming festivities get underway early this year with Farmington High School scheduling its observance for this coming Friday, Oct. 11.

A FHS counselor said the decision to hold homecoming early was made because in other years when it was held later in October the weather was inclement.

Students will hold a pep rally and bonfire on the FHS athletic field at 7 p.m., Friday night. The homecoming parade will march from FHS at 2:45 p.m., Saturday, proceed down Lake-way to Grand River to Farmington Rd. and back on Shawassawee to the athletic field.

The FHS homecoming queen will receive her crown at half-time ceremonies during the football game with the Waterford Skippers. The game begins at 8:30 p.m., Friday night from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m., the homecoming dance will be held, featuring the "Eddie Pop."

NEXT HOMECOMING celebration will be Our Lady of Sorrows' on Sunday, Oct. 13. At 1:45 p.m., that day, the OLS homecoming parade will be held from the school parking lot to Powers Rd., to Grand River and down Shawassawee to Farmington High where the homecoming football game will be played with Pontiac Catholic High.

OLS will hold a pep rally at 3 p.m., Friday, Oct. 11, during which the homecoming queen's name will be announced. The homecoming dance will be held from 8 to 11 p.m., Friday evening with the "Coming Generation" providing the music.

NORTH FARMINGTON HIGH will wind up the homecoming fun with its big day Saturday, Oct. 19. The homecoming parade will assemble at Bond School at 12:30 p.m. and proceed down 13 Mile Rd. to the school.

NFH plays the homecoming football game with L'Anonia's

Franklin High at 2 p.m. The homecoming dance will be held from 9 to 12 p.m., that evening. The NFH bonfire and pep rally will be held Friday evening, Oct. 18.

Group To Show 'Black Eye'

A film, "The Black Eye," will be shown at the general membership meeting of the New Farmington Committee to be held at 8 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 10, in Building M at the Orchard Ridge Campus of Oakland Community College.

The film was produced under the auspices of the New Detroit Committee and details the problems of the Negro in urban society.

City Holds Alta Loma Bonds

The Michigan Municipal Finance Commission has approved $15,000 in general obligation street bonds and $57,000 in special assessment street bonds for the City of Farmington.

Proceeds from the bonds will be used to defray part of the city's share of the cost of street improvements in Alta Loma subdivision.

City Manager John Dinan told The Enterprise & Observer that there will be no immediate sale of the bonds.

He said another issue of bonds on costs for Farmington Rd. widening is up for approval in two-three weeks time and the city will combine these for sale with the Alta Loma Bonds. This will be done, Dinan said, so that a better interest rate can be obtained on the sale.

Nancy Taylor Is FHS Homecoming Queen

Nancy Taylor was chosen Farmington High School homecoming queen Monday morning.

She will receive her crown at half-time ceremonies during the homecoming football game.

Chosen junior class representative on the FHS queen's court was Priscilla Northrop. Holly Waters will represent the sophomores.

North Farmington High narrowed the field for queen to three candidates at a vote taken Monday. They are Patricia Lahey, Vickie Salinas and Diane Kuhn.

Laurie Morden will represent NFH juniors and Jane Fedeson will represent the sophomores.

Boy Scout Executive Retires

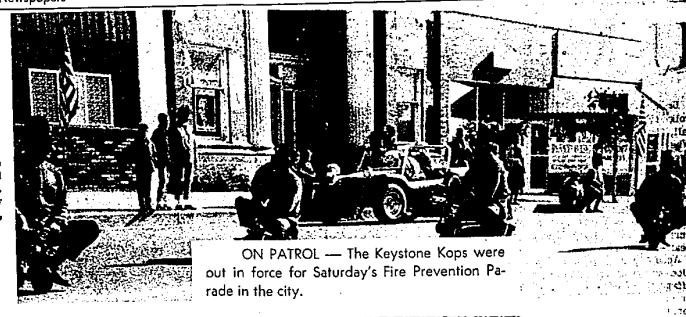

Edward H. Leland, of Utica, has announced his retirement as council executive of the Clinton Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America.

On Dec. 24, Leland will observe his 62nd birthday and the 50th anniversary of his joining the Boy Scouts as a Tenderfoot Scout. He reached the rank of Eagle Scout and earned 64 merit badges.

Leland's career as a professional Scouter began in 1929 as the assistant Scout executive of Waukesha, Wis., and at Herrin, Ill., before coming to Pontiac.

Under Leland's direction, the Clinton Valley Council grew from a membership of 2,400 boys in 1945 to its present membership of almost 12,000. One of his major goals was to acquire a larger camp site for the council, which now owns Lost Lake Scout Reservation.

Farmington Socially Speaking

There are several brave warriors or "Great White Hunters" among us. The Great White Hunters traveled with a camper to the Red Desert in Wyoming, which took two days and a night. In the headwaters of the Sweetwater River, the hunting for antelope was great, and this is attested to by Ray Arvidson, of Quail Hollow Dr., Chuck Bosto, of Glen Orchard Dr., and Glen Turner, of Novi Township.

Kathy Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Robertson, of Brandywine, isn't receiving all her mail directly. Kathy switched schools and is now attending the University of Miami in Coral Gables. Some of her mail still gets addressed to Michigan State and has to get re-routed. Her sister, Sus, is in a Miami University also, but this one is Miami University of Ohio.

The Women of North Farmington held their membership kick-off luncheon in the Glen Oaks Country Club for their first meeting of the new season. Membership in the club is limited to 150 members, so if you plan on joining, check in with Dee Dougherty, of 30015 Valley Side Dr., or phone 625-8181.

The Women of North Farmington is a service as well as social club. Their funds from financial undertakings, such as card parties, are used to help finance the Farmington Chapter of the New Horizons.

New Horizons is a non-profit organization to help the mentally retarded young adult secure employment, either by training and teaching him to work in a group or help him get situated in a job whenever possible.

How did they get so fascinated in hunting antelope? Mr. Arvidson has a lot of sports magazines and got all the information he could on hunting antelope. There was plenty of target practice during the summer for the fellows. In Wyoming, you must have a guide if you are not a resident of the area you hunt and this they did.

RAY ARVIDSON shot his buck antelope at 450 yards; Glen Turner at 350 yards and Chuck Bosto at 400 yards running. Ray's antelope head is being mounted in Rawlins, Wyo. What does antelope meat taste like? Well, you get a different answer from Mr. Arvidson than you do from Mrs. Arvidson.

Chuck Bosto, we might add, bagged a mule deer also, which is just a bit different than our northern deer. They have ears that resemble a mule's ears.

The Great White Hunters are looking forward to next year when they will either go moose hunting in Canada or elk hunting in Wyoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin G. Schaeffer, of Drake Rd., and their family journeyed to Rochester, N.Y., to help Mr. Schaeffer's parents celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

A FEW COLLEGE NOTES -- Paul McGilman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. McGilman, of Meadowview Dr., left recently to attend his freshman year at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti. His sister, Darby McGilman, is in her second year in the College of Nursing at the University of Michigan.

Orchard Lake Rd., when he saw it starting to back out of a parking lot.

Polder ran to the car, tried to stop it, and was knocked down in the middle of Orchard Lake Rd., police said.

He was treated at Botsford General Hospital for bruises and lacerations of the left ankle. He was still on sick leave Monday.

After running over the officer, the patrol car continued across Orchard Lake Rd., through a drain ditch and into a parked truck. The car is also out of commission.

TALL PLANT — Six-foot-one Bradley Lombard of 21417 Collingham St., Farmington, is dwarfed by the eight foot tomato plant growing in his back yard. In case you're interested it's a Bonnie Best plant.
