This week's question: What's the worst, or best, advice you were ever given?

We asked this question in Drake Park and the Farmington Place senior residence.

"A recreation teacher once told me, 'You've got to be a gym teacher. We need you in Detroit.' I took her advice and it was a good move. I loved it."
— Bernice Evans
Franklin

"My mother once said, 'If you can't say something positive, don't say anything at all.' Good advice."
— Peggy Osip
Dearborn Heights

"Someone said, 'A busy person is a happy person.' That's a good advice."
— Yvonne Hendrian
Farmington

"My mother was in her 80s and I tried to visit or call every day. She said to me, 'Don't you have anything better to do?'"
— Cocilla Worrel
Troy

"The best advice I got was to be honest. . . and it certainly has paid."
— Lois Grimes

"My daughter advised me to get in here (Farmington Place). I did and it was the best thing ever to happen to me."
