

Bride Wears Mother's Gown

Pamela Marie Lehman wore her mother's wedding gown when she exchanged nuptial vows with William Alexander Day in a recent ceremony in Augsburg Evangelical Lutheran Church, Detroit.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl J. Lehman Jr. of Redford Township, and Mr. and Mrs. Watson Day of Detroit are parents of the bridegroom.

The marriage rites were performed by the Rev. Ronald Johnson, with the Rev. Patrick McDunn, S.J. and seminary student Dennis Styk also taking part in the ecumenical ceremony. The bride's father gave her in marriage.

THE BRIDAL GOWN was ivory satin with long, buttoned sleeves, lace overlay on the bodice and a lace ruffle trimming the chapel train. A seed pearl petal headpiece held the bride's veil, and she carried white sweetheart roses, stephanotis and baby's breath in a colonial bouquet. Terry Tuthill, the bride's cousin, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were another cousin, Deborah Lehman, Linda Day, sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. Edward Rowe and Joyce Steiner.

They wore emerald green velvet gowns with white lace trim and carried red and white carnations.

SERVING as best man was Thomas Green. The ushers were David and Dennis Woodward, cousins of the bridegroom, Allan Wisk, and Karl C. Lehman, brother of the bride.

Sheryl Styk, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl, and the ring bearer was Bradley Pearsall, cousin of the bride.

The reception for 240 guests was held in the Sokol Cultural Center in Detroit.

After a Chicago honeymoon, the newlyweds are living on the Eastern Michigan University campus. The bride, a graduate of Thurston High School, is an EMU junior, and her husband is a junior at the University of Michigan.

MRS. STEPHEN LACEY
(Christine Marlowe)

Lacey-Marlowe Vows Are Spoken

Christine Marlowe became the bride of Stephen Michael Lacey in a recent double-ring ceremony in St. Fabian Catholic Church in Farmington.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Marlowe of Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Laczynski of Hazel Park are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Edward Orłowski, uncle of the bride, officiated for the ceremony.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a Victorian gown of white satin with pearl and crystal trim. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a petal headpiece, and she carried a Victorian nosegay of white baby roses and orange blossoms. The bride's sister, Mrs. Susan Sprague of Atlanta, was matron of honor and Kathy Orofino, Pat Larson and Cindy Marlowe were bridesmaids. They wore ruby red velvet gowns with ivory satin trim and carried Victorian nosegays of pink and red carnations and red rosebuds.

ASSISTING the bridegroom were Robert Clark as best man, Richard Laczynski, Peter Evangelista and John Pylak as attendants and John Sprague, Roger Dean and Tim Pierson as ushers.

For the wedding and reception in Vladimir's, Farmington, Mrs. Marlowe wore purple chiffon and Mrs. Laczynski was in aqua crepe. The new Mrs. Lacey attended Central Michigan University and is employed by Reynolds Metals Co. Her husband is a CMU graduate and a member of Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity. He is employed by Uniroyal. The couple will live in Farmington.

Newlyweds Living In Massachusetts

Mr. and Mrs. George Todd Jr. are making Marlborough, Mass., their home following their recent marriage in Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church, Farmington.

Msgr. Thomas Beahan performed the ceremony.

The bride is the former Linda Anne Toomey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Toomey of Farmington. Mr. and Mrs. George Todd Sr. of Norwood, Mass., are parents of the bridegroom.

THE BRIDE and all her attendants were in white. Dulcette satin fashioned the traditional bridal gown, styled with empire waist and mandarin neckline. Bodice and bishop sleeves were atoneon lace.

Jayne Toomey, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Lorraine Baron, Patricia Connelly and Carole O'Gurek.

STEPHEN TODD was best man for his brother. Seating the guests were two other brothers, Martin and Philip Todd, and T.J. Toomey, brother of the bride.

A dinner reception was held in Holiday Inn, Southfield. The couple had a Bermuda honeymoon before going to Massachusetts, where the bridegroom is manager of finance for the Honeywell Corp.
