

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP GROUP SPELLING BEE

The Farmington group of the Metropolitan Spelling Bee, one of sixty-six in the Detroit district comprising our seven hundred schools, contest for honor at the Michigan high school building today, at 2:30 p. m. The other groups will contest at various convenient places throughout the Metropolitan district at the same time.

The winners in today's contest will represent the groups in the Spelling Bee to be held in the Coliseum at the State Fair grounds May 21 when they will wage a battle of words for the honor of going to Washington, D. C. for the National Championship Bee in June.

A. G. Leonard will act as chairman of the group contest here and Mayor Butterfield will pronounce.

The following are the schools in the Farmington group with names of teachers and their addresses:

- Farmington township—Coleman School—Demaris Sullivan, Farmington.
- German School—Hazel Quack

- ambush, Farmington R. No. 1, Nichols School—Ruth Lovell, No. 1, Farmington.
- Fairview School—Mrs. Earl Reed, Walled Lake, R. No. 1.
- W. Farmington School—Lois Richardson, Farmington, R. 1.
- Farmington Schools—A. G. Leonard, Supt.
- Clarenceville Schools—A. A. Kalder, Supt.
- Noble Schools—R. A. Oldham, sec., Farmington, R. 1.
