Lowest Temperature

The lowest temperature ever actually measured appears to be the reading of a temperature of 133 degrees below zero, Fahrenheit, obtained with a registering balloon at Badwin, Iowa, in 1913. The height at which this temperature was recorded is uncertain.

Touch of Nature

Senator Edge of New Jersey said at Atlantic City in an argument against the revival of Blue Sunday laws: "A Methodist minister down in Florida caught a boy parishioner fishing one Sunday afternoon. "This is abominable," the minister said sternly. "I have no patience with you. You can fish all the six days of the week, and there's no excuse whatever for your sin in breaking the Fourth Com—Merciful powers, Jimmy! Watch yourself! Don't you see you've got a bite!"

Increased in Size

Feminine, trim ankles and slender feet have gone the way of corsets and long tresses. "Low heeled oxfords have caused feet and ankles to grow," claims a shoe official, "until the average size of women's feet is now 6 1/2. In 1920 it was 4 1/2. Ankles have increased half an inch."

Old Tires Made Good as New!

If you have had the misfortune to have a blowout, don't discard the tire. If it is in good general condition, bring it here, and by our special process, using Goodrich Repair Materials, we can restore it to normal strength. We take out the broken plies of cord fabric and put in new ones. Then we vulcanize the tread so expertly that no one would ever know you had had trouble. All manner of tire injuries healed.
