Kendallwood Comments

By EMILY ORR, GR4-7499

'Tis the "Ides of March" and what a month it has been so far for all. Spring officially came on Monday, and the swallows did get to Capistrano on March 19, which was St. Joseph's Day.

That day the people of Polish origin celebrate. Legend has it that in the past the Irish could celebrate on St. Patrick's Day so the Poles decided they too can have their holiday for merry making during Lent. St. Joe is also a patron saint of the Italian folks.

"To err is human" and a correction is being made. Thank goodness for erasers. Mrs. Ken Perrin is chairman of the ticket and invitations of the forthcoming fund raising dinner dance for the community center which will be held Friday, April 30 in Glen Oaks.

Mrs. Perrin will be assisted by Mrs. E. Mossman and Mrs. C. Welty.

Call the center at 474-2990 for tickets which are: $25 per person, $50 per couple, $100 sustaining and $200 per patron. Get in your reservation early. 'Tis a wonderful way to help your Community Center and this contribution is tax deductible, so they say.

Mrs. Connie Zerzow received the Ed Crowe trophy at a dinner and awards banquet in Mercy High School at Middle Belt and Eleven Mile Rd. The award is presented to an outstanding individual who has given of himself or herself in volunteer activity in the CYO for two years or more.

Ed Crowe was the first director of the Catholic Youth Association from 1933 until his death in 1961. Mrs. Zerzow has been very active in the Girl Scouts in our community. There will be 92 persons receiving this award from 49 parishes throughout Detroit and its suburbs.

Speaking of Girl Scouts, what a time Troops 702 and 448 enjoyed last Friday night when the girls treated their dads to a real western hoot-down in Dunkle Junior High School. The theme was western style dresses while dads donned cowboy hats. 'Twas a square dance and all the trimmings plus a professional caller, David Crowley from Lincoln Park. Refreshments were served throughout the evening.

Congratulations are in order again. 'Tis the second great grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. John Breznick of Quail Hollow — another girl and she's Heather Lynn Holcomb. Heather was born March 13 to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holcomb. Proud papa had a double celebration because he was honorably discharged from the Army. Then great grandma celebrated her birthday last Tuesday at a luncheon with a few neighbors. Congratulations to one and all.
