GOERS-JOY

On Saturday evening of last week Miss Ora Goers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goers, became the bride of Warren Joy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Joy, at a home wedding of lovely appointments. Rev. E. F. Dunlavy of the Farmington M. E. Church conducted the ceremony at 8 o'clock.

The bride was charming in a green georgette gown of simple lines. She carried a bouquet of roses and baby chrysanthemums. The maid of honor, Miss Irene Moeren of Novi was attractive in a gown of tan georgette.

Mr. Kenneth Loomis attended Mr. Joy as best man.

The decorations were in the Halloween colors and that scheme was maintained throughout the house.

A reception and supper served to forty guests followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Joy left on a short honeymoon and upon their return are residing for the present with the bride's parents on Divisor street.

Mr. Joy has a good position with the Detroit Edison Co. Mrs. Joy is a graduate of Farmington High School and Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti.

Congratulations are extended.
