

A QUARTER OF A CENTURY

The Farmington State Savings Bank has been serving this community for more than a quarter of a century. During these years while Farmington has been steadily moving forward it has been the pleasure and aim of this banking institution to assist in every way the progress of our city.

But we can foresee a still greater future for this community and it shall be our earnest endeavor to play in this future development even more important part than we have in the past.

DEATH OF EARL MUDGE

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Drake were called to Pontiac last week because of the death of Mrs. Drake's brother-in-law, Earl Mudge. Mr. Mudge died last Tuesday on the way home from Battle Creek Sanatorium where he had been taking treatment for some time.

Funeral services were held Saturday from the home of his parents in Birmingham. Deceased was 37 years old and leaves a wife and young son. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ferguson of North Farmington are the parents of Mrs. Mudge.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. James Halsted wishes to express her sincere appreciation and thank those who remembered her during her recent illness, the Progressive Bible Class and many friends.

As far as we are concerned they can call it a closed incident, so long as Almeda don't insist that it was Pat Crowe who kidnapped her.

FRESHENING BREEZES

If Groesbeck continues to bounce the fellows who supported Fred Green, and Green throws out the guys who supported Groesbeck, the janitor down at the Capitol won't have much trouble sweeping under the chairs the first of the year.

What has become of the old-fashioned guy who thought that $18 dollars was too much to pay for a winter suit?

God created a lot of little things in the universe, but let's hope nothing so small they will refuse to give a dollar during "Enrollment Week" to help the little crippled kids.

Riddle Fitments
decorate the home

Your home is not complete without artistic lighting equipment. Riddle Fitments, in period designs, provide the proper decorative note. The warm and subdued coloring, blends with any interior color scheme. Certain designs in which heavy bar iron is utilized (as illustrated) are especially suited to homes of Italian, English or Spanish type. Other styles are designed particularly for Colonial homes. And every fitment is of the true Riddle quality, representing also the utmost value obtainable in home lighting equipment.

As Authorized Riddle Dealers we will gladly show you genuine Riddle Fitments. You will be delighted with the beautiful styles available at moderate prices.
