"ROSE MARIE" COMES TO SHUBERT-DETROIT FOR RUN OF ONE WEEK ONLY

Not in the history of musical comedy has there been such nightly enthusiasm shown for any musical play as there is for Arthur Hammerstein's world renowned musical comedy "Rose-Marie" which returns to the Shubert-Detroit Opera House for one week only, beginning Sunday evening, September 25, with matinee Wednesday and Saturday.

The color scheme, the costumes and the chorus groupings and stage movements are so absolutely new and ideal that they mark a "high-water" line in this field of endeavor.

For those who like good musical accompaniment to their entertainment there is a rich, refreshing score by the well-known composers, Rudolph Friml and Herbert Stothart, which is superbly beautiful. Otto Harbach's and Oscar Hammerstein's second book, you have a story that would be good entertainment even without music.

In the splendid cast is Beulah Person, Paul Donah, Peggy Pates, Charles Meakins, Hazel Gaudreau, Houston Richards, Ross Gibson, Santo Maree, Daisy Gibson, Nell Moore and over ninety others including the symphony orchestra, who render the beautiful score in thrilling and musically manner.

At the regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid of Clarenceville M. E. Church, it was voted to have the same officers for the coming year.

Mrs. Tyler, president; Mrs. Chas. Rubert, secretary; Mrs. O. Berg treasurer; and Mrs. Harry Mack as auditor. Chairman of circles were Mrs. Wm. Shaw of Sunshine Circle, Mrs. Berg of Blue Bird Circle and Mrs. R. Scudder of Cheerful Circle.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rancier attended the funeral of their niece, Miss Ellen Rancier of Royal Oak at the Birmingham Chapel, Friday.
