BORROWING MONEY FROM YOUR FRIENDS

In the first place, no one likes to lend money for which he has worked hard, and which he, perhaps, needs for his own use. Then again, it weakens your business and special prestige, and is about as injurious a habit as a young man can possibly cultivate.

Instead of borrowing, use a little judgment, and each month deposit with this safe bank a part of your income. It may come a bit hard at first, but you'll very soon see the wisdom and enjoy the benefit of it.

Come in and inspect the Sunbeam Cabinet Heater—a modern heating device that requires no basement, fits into the living-room or dining-room like any other good-looking piece of furniture, yet heats the entire five to seven-room home, upstairs and down. It takes the place of two or three stoves and saves enough fuel, coal or wood, to pay for itself in a very short time.
