BABY WINS HONORS FOR FOURTH TIME AT FAIR

Farmington roads, showed a determination to prevent the girls from taking all honors by turning up some very high percentages for the male sex.

Two Girls High
Patricia Jean Taylor of Farmington was right behind the winner, taking the lead among the remainder of girls in class III, with 91. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Taylor. A slightly high percentage was made by Vera Agnes Briggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dana Briggs of Farmington, in class I, nine months to one year. She scored 91.5 per cent. Phyllis Ella Darlington of New Hudson winning with 92.5.

Boys Record High
In the one to two-year class, boys from Farmington and Novi were high up in honors. Howard Boillat of Farmington scored 95.3 as did Harold Drouillard of Novi, while Harold Hansen of Farmington was accorded a score of 94.5. Richard Seebaldt of Farmington scored 88.5.
Farmington babies made an exceptional record, with probably more honors in comparison to the size of the town than any other community.

Rev. J. Bollens

Rev. E. F. Dunlavy.

Along the dusty highway,
Out toward the setting sun,
A man of God is walking
To the tune of His "Well Done."

He walks along uncomplaining
From the smart of sorrows rod,
At last, into the royal presence,
He is bidden, a guest of God.

Now the veil from his eyes is taken,
Sweet mysteries he is shown,
His doubts and fears are over
For He Knows as he is known.

We shall miss you, Brother Bollens,
And your place can ne'er be filled,
But you have left us better,
Since with us you have lived.

And now, servant of God, "well done,"
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle fought, the victory won,
And thou art crowned at last.
