MONEY Is Your Best
Friend

If you get into trouble, it will pay you out. If you get sick, it will pay the doctor's and druggist's bills. If you want to take a trip, it will pay your way. If you want to develop your business or take advantage of some good investment, you can do it at a moment's notice.

But the man without money can do none of these. Instead, whenever opportunity is offered or adversity befalls him, he is forcibly embarrassed.
