ROCHESTER PLANNING TO CELEBRATE BRIDGE
OPENING NOVEMBER 9

The 810-foot viaduct, which spans the Clinton River valley at Rochester, Mich., and separates the grades of the Detroit United line, the Grand Trunk railroad and the Rochester highway, is at last completed, and Rochester will properly celebrate the event by declaring a holiday and general celebration for Wednesday, November 9.

There will be a dedicatory ceremony, parade, games, a continuous free movie show, and a dance in the evening. Music will be furnished by band and orchestra. Business men of Rochester, and vicinity have donated more than 100 prizes which will be given away to lucky ticket holders.
