Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson attended the Pontiac Exchange Club dinner last Friday night. The Providence Hospital home has installed windows in a small building, used as a conservatory for flowers. R. T. Cudmore has several trucks and a steam shovel at work on his property on the 12-Mile road, removing a large hill which obstructs the view of the road from his home. The bazaar and supper last Friday night given by the Ladies' Circle of the church was a success. Credit is given to the president, Mrs. Fred B. Hitchcock. Thomas Cairns took his mother and aunt for a motor trip to Six Lakes on Wednesday afternoon. A large crowd attended and enjoyed a keno party given by the Glen Oaks Club in the Bond School auditorium. John Brown, janitor of Bond School, is driving a new car. A new barn has been erected on the Sherrill farm where George Welch resides, on the Ford Republic road. The North Farmington Independent Church will not hold evening services throughout the winter months. The old D. U. R. waiting room which was an obstruction to the view of autoists at the corner of the 13-Mile and Orchard Lake roads has been removed.

Mrs. Mary Carey and Mrs. Amassa Grace spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Archie Cairns. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Evans and children had Thanksgiving dinner with relatives in Detroit. Miss Helen Garner, teacher of the Nichols School, left Wednesday noon to spend the holidays with her parents at Six Lakes. Mrs. Marie Walters entertained guests at a Thanksgiving dinner. The Parent-Teacher meeting of the Bond School was held Tuesday afternoon. A delightful program was given by the children of Miss B. Warren and Mrs. L. Shepley's rooms.
