

Farmington Church Setting For Vows Richard Zella

Kathleen Louise Gorelick and Stephen Jay Bores were united in marriage in a March 19 candlelight service in Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church, Farmington.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Gorelick of Oakland Avenue, Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bores of Monroeville, O.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an empire gown of white satin and a chantilly lace embroidered with seed pearls. Lace also edged the train, and a lace cap held her finger-tips.

She carried pink baby rosebuds and stephanotis.

DIANE GERVAIS, as a matron of honor, wore a deep pink empire gown with flower trim at the neckline and cuffs.

Her bouquet and headpiece were of matching flowers. Dressed like her were six bridesmaids, Karen and Laurie Gorelick, sisters of the bride, Kathy Cassidy, Linda Durkin, Nancy Walgraves and Jo Sniderman.

Mrs. Gorelick's was pink crushed silk and Bores wore pale pink peau de soie.

ASSISTING the bridegroom were John Bores as best man and Rich Pfeiffer, Don Bores, Rich Bores, Tom Charville, Mark Bores and Bob Bores as ushers.

Compton Village Inn was the scene of the reception. The couple drove to Florida for a two-week honeymoon and will live in Perryburg, O.

The new Mrs. Bores is a graduate of Farmington High School and the Henry Ford School of Nursing.

Is Wed In South

Lt. Richard Dean Zella, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Zella Jr. of Marion Avenue, Redford Township, claimed Joyce Elizabeth Williams as his bride in a ceremony March 20 in Valdosta, Ga.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. H. Curtis Williams of Valdosta.

The ceremony took place in the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Johnson Sr. of Valdosta. Horace West officiated.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her brother-in-law, the bride wore a white satin gown with cuffed bishop sleeves and vestal lace trimming the empire waist and bordering the chapel train.

Her elbow-length illusion veil was secured by a seed pearl tiara, and she carried white roses, lilies of the valley and a white orchid on her Bible.

Mrs. Johnson was matron of honor and Mrs. Louis Dachtly of Detroit was bridesmaid.

Their floor-length gowns had lilac crepe bodices and full sleeves and skirts of crepe in a floral print in plum, lilac, aqua and white. Their flowers were lavender and purple ranunculus and white daisies.

CAPT. KENNETH B. ZELLA of Tampa, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and another brother, Ronald Zella of Cleveland, was usher.

Also in the wedding party were Robert Johnson Jr., nephew of the bride, as ring bearer, and Karen Paduchowski of Hamtramck, the bridegroom's god-child, as flower girl, Michelle Zella, another god-child, and Elizabeth Johnson, niece of the bride, furnished the guests with rice.

A home reception followed the ceremony and the couple honeymooned in Jamaica. They will live in Valdosta, where the bridegroom is stationed as an instructor pilot in the U.S. Air Force.
