The first place winners from each category will perform at the May 2 concert.

Farmington Socially Speaking

By KATHY ZISKA GR. 4-7261

On May 2, the 1946 Detroit Central High graduates will hold their 25th reunion, gathering in the Raleigh House in Southfield for a buffet dinner and reunion, dancing to the tunes made famous in the big band era.

NOT TOO LONG ago, Rev. Kilcoyne of St. Colman Catholic Parish honored a number of people that give a lot of themselves, their time and effort to the parish in many ways. For example, the ladies (and their husbands) of the Altar Society, the ushers (and their wives), those connected with the religious program, etc.

"The thanks" was a dinner dance in the Bayview Country Club where some of the guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. James Park and son Richard, Richard, by the way, graduated from college in December and does so much work for the church that he was honored with an invitation.

Also there were: Mr. and Mrs. Philip Valenti, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Evans, Mr. and Mrs. James Collins, Mr. and Mrs. John DePottier, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Long, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Manino, Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gunderman, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Risk, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thome, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cesaroni.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Trusser, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tarnie, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grous, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Curran and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Charbonneau.

Though I'm going to mention only one more name, there were others there but we must mention St. Colman's assistant, Father Frendo who is chaplain at the Monastery of the Blessed Sacrament.
