What Every Housewife Needs

"The old-fashioned idea that a woman's highest praise was her capacity for domestic drudgery, late and early, is fast passing away.

The modern housewife calls in the aid of electricity. She cooks, washes, sweeps, sews, with efficient, cheaply-running electric appliances; she does her housework quickly and easily; she has leisure for other things; she has a more homelike home; she preserves her health, lengthens her life, and saves her money.

Come to our office and at least look at the beautiful display of household appliances
