DINNER AT DYE'S

J. W. Lathrop entertained a party of gentlemen at a fine steak and chicken dinner at Dye's Inn on Grand River road west, Wednesday noon. The members of the party were Howard M. Warner, Harley D. Warner, F. H. Nichols and W. N. Miller of Farmington, Chet Levinger, Frank Rambo and A. E. Doney of Plymouth.

The Dye Inn was the Lathrop home, a large and comfortable building located at the crest of one of the many rises in the beautiful rolling country immediately west of Farmington. It has been somewhat enlarged for the new occupant, refloored throughout and redecorated, providing several large and small dining rooms. The Inn is in the center of many acres of land owned by Mr. Lathrop which are being improved by him with a view to attracting home builders who are looking for fine locations.

SOCIAL CLUB DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Adams will be host and hostess at a 2:00 o'clock dinner Saturday afternoon at the Delta Palm Tea Room. Enjoying the occasion are Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Bradley of Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. George Jenks of Reftord, Mr. and Mrs. Mark R. Seely of Northville.

POPULAR PLACE TO DANCE

Another one of those popular dances at Charles Heliker's hall, Orchard Lake and Twelve Mile roads next Saturday night, January 8. It was a gay and orderly crowd that filled this place to overflowing on New Years Eve. The proprietor looked for a good crowd and got a big one that cleaned him out of etables before the new year got a good start, but everything in plenty is planned for Saturday night. Wood & Brooks orchestra will furnish the music.

OFFICERS INSTALLED

The Order of Pochontas lodge held their public installation of officers Wednesday evening at Northville, several from here attending.

Miss Mary E. Foster of Farmington was installed Collector of Wampum, an office she has held four years. Mrs. Mabel Gittel of Farmington as Guard of the Forest. The installation was carried through in ample form by Wauwata Council of Detroit. Two Past Pochontas were presented with jewels.

BAPTIST BIBLE STUDY

Wednesday nights at 8 o'clock there is a Bible study group that meets at the Baptist church. For the next few weeks we will study the "Order of Events at the Second Coming of Christ." This meeting is open to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hudson and family and Mr. and Mrs. Tandy of Rosedale Park were guests of Mrs. Charlotte Wolfe, last Sunday.

Mrs. L. McGee is again on our sick list, also Mrs. Earl Wolfe.

SHUT UP YOUR DOG

George Grant, Chief of Police, gives notice that all dogs must be shut up for the present. This order is made as a precaution as a dog known to have been mad had bitten several other dogs before it was killed.

An animal or person bitten by a dog suffering from rabies usually shows signs of being affected in about nine days. If any of the dogs bitten are affected they will show it soon, hence the warning.

Work of rebuilding the old blacksmith shop, corner of Base Line and Grand River roads, was commenced this week. Plans call for two stores with a hall above.
